800 at Meet Oppose Site; Baldwin Asks New VA Spot

Following Monday night's protest meeting at Miramonte High School, at which more than 800 persons objected to the proposed site adjacent to the school in southern Orinda, Congressman John F. Baldwin on Tuesday urged the Veterans Administration to withdraw construction plans for a VA hospital at that site.

In an appeal to H. V. Higley, administrator of veterans' affairs, Veterans Administration, Baldwin, in Washington, D.C., said:

"I should like to recommend that the Veterans Administration make a new survey to determine an area and location for the site of this hospital which would be more in keeping with zoning regulations and which would be more agreeable to the residents most directly affected."

"WE HAVE ALREADY received notice that several areas in Contra Costa and Solano Counties would be very much interested in this hospital."

Stressing that proper hospitalization facilities should be available to veterans of the East Bay area, the congressman added:

"The question in this case is not whether a hospital should be constructed, but simply to find a location which will best fit the zoning regulations and the desires of the residents involved."

Baldwin informed Higley that he has received scores of telephone calls, telegrams and letters in opposition to the proposed 20-acre site directly across Ivy Drive from Miramonte High School. The VA recently filed condemnation proceedings in Federal Court for the site, against Utah Construction Company, owner.

MONDAY NIGHT'S meeting was conducted by Robert Thaman, acting chairman of the hastily formed Committee Against the Veterans Administration Hospital in Orinda. The meeting had been arranged by Baldwin, after he had received many protests.

Utah Official Reports 'First Construction'

"First construction of new homes and a tentative program for additional suburban development" on its huge Moraga Valley holdings were reported yesterday by Utah Construction Company.

In a special progress report prepared at request of The Sun, Frank M. Keller, a Utah Construction Company vice-president, said that "local builders have already begun construction of new homes—the first in the firm's 8000-home planned community—on approximately 236 sites developed in the Burton Ranch area and southeast of Orinda Crossroads."

Several leading Contra Costa County home builders "of many years' experience in the area" have acquired these sites, and are constructing homes "under appropriate restrictions designed to preserve the existing character and high quality of the community," Keller said. Prices will range from about $20,000, he added.

"THREE ADDITIONAL subdivisions containing 461 building sites have been given tentative planning approval and will be developed as soon as the new Shepherd Canyon Freeway location has been selected by the state," the Utah Construction Company official stated.

"It is expected that these additional sites will also be developed by local building firms using Contra Costa County workmen and supplies to provide further business stimulus in the community through payroll and material purchases," he continued.

"Contemplating a fine, high-grade residential development balanced by appropriate research and development type industries and adequate commercial and service facilities, planning studies for the 5000-acre project were begun immediately following purchase of the land from the historic Moraga Company in 1953," Keller said.

A TOPOGRAPHIC MAP and tentative land use plans, plus an examination and report by the Urban Land Institute, have been completed and are now being used as a guide for future development of the property, he reported.

"In addition, Harland Bartholomew and Associates, internationally known St. Louis planning firm, has been engaged to develop an overall plan for the area," Keller said.

"Bartholomew—who is chairman of two of the nation's most important planning groups, the National Capital Planning Commission and the National Capital Regional Planning Council—started work on the project over a year ago and has prepared a number of preliminary studies of the area's development."

"These studies finally resolved themselves into three major possible programs, each dependent upon one of three proposed freeway routes through the heart of the property," Keller explained.

"IT IS NECESSARY, then, that the program for the large central area of the Moraga property be held in abeyance until a decision on the freeway location has been reached by the state," he said.

"Although developing three such plans is obviously a hardship, we feel that the effort at this time will expedite the area's development and benefit the community at large while the state is completing its studies for an appropriate freeway route," Keller declared.

"The federal plan for acquisition of land for a Veterans Administration hospital—and the government's condemnation action taken without notice and without local consultation—also pose a difficult problem in planning our central area," he emphasized.

"But Utah Construction Company is looking ahead in Moraga Valley and is planning its development to protect and enhance property values not only for ourselves but for present and future residents of the community."

You Can Meet Candidates Monday

Next Monday night's the night you have a date with the candidates for Congress, Assembly, State Senate and Board of Supervisors!

The place: Acalanes High School auditorium.

The time: 8 p.m.

The occasion will be a Candidates' Night, jointly sponsored by The Sun and the Lafayette-Orinda Junior Chamber of Commerce.

This will be your opportunity to meet and hear the candidates and to ask them questions.

"The Sun is happy to cooperate in putting on this program," Herman Silverman, Sun publisher, said yesterday.

"It is in line with the sort of public service the paper tries to give, during election campaigns and all year 'round."

President George Yorg of the Jaycees pointed out that the Candidates' Night will come only eight days before the June 5 primary elections.

"That means that the voters will have a valuable opportunity to hear the candidates' state their views and to question them," Yorg said.

"In turn, this means the voters will receive very real aid in helping them decide for whom to vote."

Final details of the arrangements for Candidates' Night were announced this week by Silverman, Yorg and Frank H. Frazier, chairman of the Jaycees' get-out-the-vote committee.

Scheduled to present views and to answer questions are:

1. Congressman John Baldwin's administrative assistant, Alfred W. Newman of Vallejo, representing the incumbent, who is in Washington D.C.; and Dr. H. R. Quinney, Democratic aspirant for the 6th Congressional District seat. Baldwin is a Republican.

Until this week it had been expected that neither Baldwin nor Quinney would be able to be represented Monday night. However, shifting of a previously conflicting engagement for Quinney, and availability of Newman to represent Baldwin, has changed the situation.

2. Incumbent Donald Doyle (R) and Russell Koch (D), candidates for assemblyman from the 10th Assembly District.

3. Incumbent George Miller Jr. (D) and Jack Pedder (R), candidates for state senator from the 17th Senatorial District.

4. The candidates for the non-partisan post county supervisor from the Second Supervisorial District — David Comstock, Eunice Koller, Ed Larmer, Harold Mutnick, Mel Nielsen, C. R. Wallace and William Zion.

Moderator will be Kendrick Morrish of Orinda, noted civic leader and experienced "emcee" at similar gatherings in the past.

The Walnut Creek Toastmasters Club will be in charge of timing the candidates, adhering to the following time schedule:

Congressional candidates — five minutes for each direct presentation, followed by a five-minute question-and-answer period involving both candidates.

State Senate candidates — five minutes for each direct presentation; then a five-minute question-and-answer period for queries to both.

Supervisorial candidates — eight minutes for presentation by each candidate; then a 15 minute over-all question-and-answer period.

The program will be opened by Silverman. His talk will be followed by a talk by Yorg, who will turn conduct of the meeting over to Morrish.

In order to assure fairness and impartiality, lots will be drawn for each candidate-group of speakers, to determine the speaking order in that category. The lot-drawing will be supervised by Morrish.

The candidates for Congress will be first in the candidates' presentations. They will be followed by the Assembly candidates.

Then will come the State Senate candidates. Finally the Second District supervisorial candidates will "speak their pieces."

Freeway Route Battle Starts

WHICH ROUTE will the western leg of the future Shepherd Canyon Freeway follow? That question is being asked by many these days as the battle over the routing shapes up. This map shows four possible routes, indicated by numbers, as follows: No. 4 — the state-favored route extending in a comparatively straight line from St. Mary's College through a spot between Miramonte High School and the proposed Veterans Administration hospital site; No. 1 — the Redwood Canyon route (which Utah Construction Company says is really the San Leandro Canyon route), favored by Utah Construction Company; No. 2 — the Indian Valley route, favored by some groups and individuals; No. 3 — a route southerly of the state-favored route, looping to the south of the present Moraga townsite.

Arguments Voiced Over Four Routes

By JULIUS ROSENTHAL

The battle is beginning to shape up over the routing of the western leg of the future Shepherd Canyon Freeway.

Although state highway engineers favor a route that would cut right through two large proposed subdivisions which Utah Company is planning, protests to the state-favored route have been cropping up.

The route favored by the state engineers would come out in an interchange arrangement at Moraga Highway just south of Miramonte High School, between the high school and the proposed Veterans Administration hospital.

THAT ROUTE, designated on the adjoining map as No. 4, was described several weeks ago by C. F. Greene, before the County Planning Commission in Martinez, as one which would probably cut "right through the middle" of Tract 2288 (254 lots) and Tract 2440 (425 lots), the proposed Utah subdivisions.

Planning Commission consideration of these tracts is being held up pending word from the State Division of Highways regarding the Shepherd Canyon Freeway routing.

In the meantime, state highway officials have been getting protests against the state-favored route, from Utah Construction Company and from some of the residents whose homes are in the vicinity of the route.

The Sun learned this week that Greene met last week with representatives of the Moraga del Rey Ranchitos de Moraga, Lincoln Estates and Dos Encinas improvement associations, at the Hollad DuBois home in Orinda.

DISCUSS WERE the four routes shown on the adjoining map. These were the state-favored route and the following, numbered here to correspond to the numbers on the map:

1. The Redwood Canyon route (described by Vice-President Frank M. Keller of Utah Construction Company as the San Leandro Canyon route).

2. The Indian Valley route.

3. Another route, which would follow a line generally south of the state-favored route and north of the Indian Valley route.

ASKED IF Utah Construction Company has been talking in favor of the San Leandro Canyon route, Keller told The Sun this week that he and other Utah Company officials, while trying to avoid getting in a "tangle," tell people who seek their reaction that the canyon route "makes sense."

The state-favored route is a high-level route, and would have

Library Fund Announces $125,000 Building Goal

A total of $125,000 has been announced as the fund drive target for construction of the proposed new Orinda Community Library, according to Perc. S. Brown, general chairman of the building fund.

This total, according to expert estimates, will build a functional structure of approximately 4500 to 5500 square feet, Brown said.

The proposed library will be located on an acre and a half site, donated by the Orinda Association on a 99-year lease. It is located on the Orinda Highway, from the intersection of Irwin Way to the property line of the Orinda School.

According to tentative plans, the new library will be of outstanding construction in Orinda's long-term community planning, said George H. Hauerken, chairman of the Library Building Committee.

Funds for construction purposes will be raised in a voluntary subscription drive directed toward all Orinda residents.

Mrs. Donald Krotz, Field Group chairman, announces that captains have been appointed for all areas in the Orinda Library Building Fund campaign. Assisting Mrs. Krotz in organizing the residential drive are Mrs. Ed. Wilford and Mrs. John Madison of the Orinda Junior Woman's Club.

Thirteen more endorsements have since been received recently, Chairman Brown has announced.

New backers include: Boy Scouts, Miramonte Parents Club, Children's Hospital - Orinda Branch, Moraga del Rey, Board of Trustees, Orinda Union School District, Orinda Democrats.

Orinda Young Republicans, Republican Women's Club, Democratic Women of Orinda, Church of Latter Day Saints, Mt. Diablo Therapy Center - Orindos Unit, Orinda Nursery School, and Ranchitos de Moraga Association.

"No adverse comments have been received from any source," said Brown.

Many of the official endorsers have gone out of their way to applaud the Library Fund Campaign and its objectives. Most all mention the dire community need.

"Many express hopes for a big success. This is fine and is truly appreciated by all of us who are striving to create this fine and enduring community asset."

"The test is fast approaching," continued Brown. "Only several more weeks remaining. I believe Orindans will rise to the occasion and raise the money."

"All Orindans should clearly recognize the following important points, also the difference — with a distinction — between this fund raising and others:

"1. Once the needed sum is raised, it is non-recurring for approximately eight to twelve years — dependent upon the rate of growth of the area and the then library needs.

"2. This money does not leave the area. The Library becomes and remains a permanent Orinda Community asset. We do this for ourselves.

"3. Entirely non-political, non-sectarian and non-controversial, it obviously is the project we can all unite in doing. Remember the Library building — having been built first — will set the tone for the entire Orinda Community Center."

New High School Planned On Dollar Ranch Site

A suit of eminent domain has been filed by Acalanes High School District trustees for a 49-acre site in Tice Valley as the location for the fourth high school to be built in the district.

The suit, filed this week, is directed against Estand Company Incorporated, agents for the Dollar Ranch properties. The site is located one mile south of the junction of Howell Avenue and Tice Valley Road.

According to Acalanes District Superintendent Neil Parsons, construction on the Tice Valley school is expected to start in the summer of 1957 with the school opening for a freshman class in the fall of 1958.

THE NEW PLANT will have an eventual enrollment of around 1250 and will relieve mounting enrollment pressure on both Las Lomas High School and Acalanes High School.

Parsons said that by 1958, when the Tice Valley school is opened, Acalanes District enrollment will have reached 3900. By the time the new school is a four-year school plant in 1962, enrollment is expected to have climbed to 6500.

District officials indicated that they expect Miramonte High School, opened this year in Orinda, to be able to handle Orinda-Moraga secondary pupils for the immediate future.

Thieves Enter Orinda Willows

Thieves entered the Orinda Willows restaurant early this week and made off with a typewriter and some cigarettes, reported Robin Rosefield, new owner of the Willows.

Rosefield, of 7225 Antioch Street, Oakland, recently purchased the restaurant from Milt Nelson, and has had it temporarily closed for redecorations.

The Willows theft occurred in the same period as similar home and school thefts reported in Lafayette.

No definite connection between the two has been ascertained by the Sheriff's office.

Reward Offered For Lost Dog

Anyone who owns a dog knows how important one can be to a family.

Mr. and Mrs. Vasco Giannini, 6 Valencia Road, lost their dog Tuesday and are offering a reward to the finder.

Butch, the liver and white springer spaniel, is a 2 year old male, who has been with the Gianninis since he was 2 months old. He was wearing county dog license 125.

Giannini is a partner in T & V Meats at Clark's Market in Rheem Center, and at Black's Market in Orinda. He offers a reward to anyone returning the dog.

Orindans Protest Hospital: Clash With VA at Meet

By SHERMAN PEARL

The people of Orinda met the Veterans Administration Monday night in the Miramonte High School auditorium in a lively first round of the current hospital hassle. Each antagonist left the site, a bit more wary of the other, to regroup and prepare for the next onslaught.

Monday's public meeting, called to protest the VA hospital site proposed for the residential area adjacent to Miramonte, was attended by over 800 local residents. Almost unanimously they hurled their opposition to the proposed site at five VA representatives, including two from Washington, who parried the thrusts and stood their defensive ground.

The round ended with a no decision verdict, but the throng of Orindans in attendance called for still more action.

Preparations for round two seemed imminent as the local challengers left the spirited gathering distraught, some mumbling "We wuz robbed."

INDICATION of things to come was evidenced at the very start of the meet, as the crowd was filling up some of the last empty seats in the Miramonte gymnasium.

Suburbia Scribblings

By MARIE MONAHAN

No time now for efficiency experts

This was the month when the Lady of The House shuttled between the garden, the pool, the sundeck, and some very special events on her social calendar, with rather hectic stops at the grocery store in between.

The season of sun and fun is here . . . and if the dusty drapes, bookshelves, and dull brass and silver taint at every interior turn, never mind, Mrs. ! Hang up that feather duster and resolve to stay outside as much as possible!

One lady we know walks hubby to the car every morning at eight, gives him a kiss and waves him off. By the time she's tiptoed through the tulips, staked the snaps and fed the fuchsias, she gets back to the house . . . just in time for lunch. She STILL has to face that stack of bkfst. dishes, but her morning meanderings through the flora and fauna have given her new zest and chores are done more cheerfully.

So it goes . . . from now on in. For those of us who haven't YET got around to Spring Cleaning, we may as well admit we'll NEVER make it now!

THE MERRY MONTH OF MAY . . . First off, a wk. ago Wed., the Orinda Art Center members held their Art Exhibit and Garden Luncheon on the grounds of the home of Helen Harrer. Some 400 guests bought tickets to view the colorful artwork of local young Rembrandts and/or Picassos. Pictures in posterprint, crayon and chalk were on exhibit throughout the garden, terraces, on tree trunks and brick walls.

Diets were ignored this day

Wine punch was served, pre-lunch, from large plastic bowls in the hexagonal grape arbor, or Gazabo, near the pool . . . Luncheon of a highly-caloric salad and creamy eclairs was taken at tables spread w/slate-blue and wht. striped glosheen covers with matching slate-blue flowerpots filled w/daisies as centerpieces.

SO DAISIES DO TELL . . . that Virginia Stafford and Donna Skaggs arrived together . . . Pat Erickson and Betsy Vail chatted w/Board member Margaret Tharp. Lid Miles, Drama dept. head, took Doris Clifford, Agnes Oliphant, Teddy Gardner to her table . . . Tish Winkworth, also on the Drama com. greeted her guests Barbara Warner, Lucetta Allinson, Jackie Meurk, Helen Niemi . . . In the crowd, Nancy Davison, Gertrude Arighi in a sunback dress, a large flowered hat to shield from the sun, Shattzie Tartt, Aileen Deahl, Wirtabel Harris, Marcia Henning . . . Glimpses of Virginia Hart, Charlotte Chapple.

Following lunch, bridge occupied others who rather envied Margaret Moore having a refreshing swim in the pool . . . Betty Smith, Jasmine Jensen, Ruth Simpich, Jane Jurs played cards as did Mesdames Clyde Toland, Eugene Paine, Hugh McIntyre, Fred Federighi, another foursome. Enjoying the exhibit together, too, were Cathy Cunningham, Ruth Hildebrand, Georgeanne Fink, Joy Nederson . . . Also Mesdames Aubrey Sweet, Ned Rogers, William Clayton, W. F. Fink.

TABLE TALK . . . Comes June soon and the Les Rowses will be heading for three wks. in Canada, motoring to Lake Louise, Banff, and all the travel-poster places. . . . Alayne and Bill Swigert of SF are newly-ensconced in the former Hogue home on Terry Lane.

The Nels Hamburgs and the Bud Kochers are barely a "jackpot" richer, but had a wonderful stay anyhow at the Riviera, Las Vegas, and "spectacular" golf champ. tourney played at Desert Inn. It's another May B'day baby for the Eugene Garbarinos w/Claude Marie being born last Sunday at Alta Bates. . . . The Orinda dentist's wife June has decided to limit the B'day Cake Baking by celebrating w/ONE big b'day party for all three May-born children in future years.

STEAKS AND STARS AND SLEEPING BAGS are on the agenda for the Paul Pollackezs and the Ted Sanfords this wknd, the two families taking three Amer. Field Serv. students to Yosemite for a viewing.

Here from Hawaii recently was the Wayne Austins' daughter, Arlene Tinsley, who spent a wee kat her parents' newhome on Loma Vista before leaving for NY and Europe. . . . Another daughter visiting here from Montana for a month, Mrs. Milton D. Goodland, who belongs to Marie Rose, Miramonte Sewing Teacher, and is accompanied by her tiny daughter, and Mrs. Rose's grandchild, Tawny.

Billy Greenlaw and Pat Walker got out their biggest coffee pots over in Sleepy Hollow one morning of late and the fragrance of coffee brewing attracted some 100 neighbors for a morning gettogether before the S. H. Maypole festivities.

Plenty of parties for popular pair

A score of parties is preceding Fran Suttiff's departure for Kansas where she and the boys will join Miles Suttiff. . . . Fran (a past president of the Mothers Club) and her husband have always been active in community activities, and have a large circle of friends who'll miss them much.

Among the guests at a recent luncheon in Fran's honor co-hosted by Hilda Soren and June Nicolet were Nancy Gardner, Edith Scatena, Ellen Harneet, Cary Indig, Virginia Barnett, Cornelia Bleuel, Josephine Baird, Helen Pearson, Eleanor Jansen, Sara Frey, Eleanor Moymann, Betty Bergen, Billie Greenlaw, Ann O'Flynn, Betty Taylor, Marilyn Hampton, Nell Hutton, Renetta Rawlings.

AND NO WONDER THERE WAS A RUN on hotdog and hamburger buns last week . . . Loads of places the ladies went—

Still another attraction, was the Flamingo Unit's Flower Arrangement Tea on Tues. May 15 at Diablo . . . Mildred Twining, Laurie Kersten, Emma Usinger created a floral entry for the King's Daughters . . . Charlotte Chapple, who worked w/Virginia Howes on an arrangement for the Orinda Lighthouse group, also helped Dorothy Barden, Parker alone for the Orioles . . . Tillie Lucas and Wishy Sage wore Japanese kimonos and obis to greet guests . . . Models in J. Magnin suds-duds were Tanager Stella Boyle, Oriole Caroline Read . . . Mary Neiderkroger, Eileen Juchter among the therapy prexes pouring. . . . Some of the guests, Connie Smith, Pat Sergeant, Lola Tebbis, Dorothy Palmgren.

AT THE YOUNG REPUBLICANS FUND-Raising party last Sat. in the Carnival spirit, Marguerite and George Jackson passing cotton-battling balls, some w/silver dollars tucked inside . . . Joe Zablocki and Jack Gates sportive at the sponge concession. . . . Dorothy Drake, Etta Hill dispensing liquid libation . . . Betty Irwin taking over temporarily for Jane Courtright on the dart game before darting off early herself.

The Jack Behrs brought Oakland guests, the Ronald Lights arrived in Gay 90's attire on their way to a costume party . . . A few there, the John Barrons, Andy Knudsen, Don Doyle, Jim Moriarty's, Art Schwatka, Wayne Bentley, Michael Ferrones, Bob Smiths . . . Fred and Dee Bussey missing from the fun, on a business trip to SAC.

THE ORINDA DEMOCRATS have been busy, too. . . . Widely-attended was their wonderful Wine-Tasting party at the Claremont, May 11 . . . Among the samplers were the George Hauers, Charles Hanks, James Benneys, Sid Kroffs, Dr. and Mrs. Leonard Roth, Lieut. and Mrs. Harold Walters, Dorothy Barden.

Responsible for the success of the Democratic Women's recent membership tea held at the home of Mrs. Bert Corona were Mesdames Paul Weber, Eugene Peterson, Ralph Ried, T. J. Titmus . . . Guests delighted w/Berkeley singer Barbara Tabler's song parodies.

Which Route for Freeway? Battle Starts to Shape Up

A 1500-to-1600 foot tunnel and a 6 per cent grade, as against a 4 to 5 per cent grade on the present Tunnel Road.

This state-favored routing would apparently take just a corner off the proposed Veterans Administration hospital property.

WHAT ABOUT THE San Leandro Canyon route (No. 1 on the map) which Keller insists is the proper name, although many people call it the Redwood Canyon route?

This is a low-level route and would require a tunnel of 3400 to 3700 feet. It is approximately a mile and a half longer than the state-favored route — but has very little grade.

Planning groups and residents have already expressed considerable opposition to this route. One of the major objections is that the route would cut through the redwood trees.

That objection, however, is disputed by Keller, who claims that very few redwoods would be disturbed — and that the route would offer access to the redwood country for many visiting nature-lovers.

THE INDIAN VALLEY route (No. 2 on the map) was at first considered unfeasible because of springs, possible slides, and reputedly steep grades. This route is about 1.3 miles longer than the state-favored route (No. 4).

However, new engineering methods are reported to have done away with objections of "unfeasibility," and it is reported that the state could build a route through Indian Valley.

Some planning groups are in favor of the Indian Valley route; it is pointed out that the grade would not be greater than that of the state-favored route, that the area is undeveloped and that therefore right-of-way costs would be less than for other routes.

In a letter to Greene Tuesday, the Lincoln Estates Improvement Association urged selection of the Indian Valley route. The letter was signed by Secretary Barbara Gimbel.

THE REMAINING possible route which has been discussed (No. 3 on the map) is described by opponents as not much better than No. 4.

These objectors state that route No. 3, which would loop south of the present Moraga townsite, would, like No. 4, have the disadvantages of proximity to the high school, creation of serious traffic problems, and gas fumes and smoke in the valley area.

THE STATE is expected to receive strong support for its plan to route the western leg of the Shepherd Canyon Freeway in the immediate vicinity of Miramonte High School (No. 4), perhaps from people not directly affected by that routing.

The state engineers are expected to point out that this route is a shorter, more direct route than the others and would cost less to build; also, that it would be cheaper for motorists to travel.

Such organizations as the Diablo Highway Improvement Federation and the Orinda Association have not yet been heard from on this problem. Nor have governmental units and officials.

Still to be held is a public meeting, to be conducted by the State Division of Highways, on the routing of the western portion of the Shepherd Canyon Freeway.

VICE-PRESIDENT KELLER of Utah Construction Company described the San Leandro Canyon route as one "currently followed by the Sacramento Northern Railroad."

He summarized the picture as follows: "We retained Harland Bartholomew and Associates a little over a year ago. They've been studying the problem."

"The state's thinking is that a route straight across from St. Mary's College to Miramonte High School, and then climbing a hill and going through a high-level tunnel, is the shortest route."

"The general line of the Sacramento through the San Leandro Canyon. The railroad took the easiest way — they had a free choice of which direction to travel. This route is about a mile and a half longer than the one the state likes."

"We asked Harland Bartholomew his opinion. He came up with the thought that the high-level route would not be good use of the existing land in the valley—that from a land-planning viewpoint, such a route would be all wrong."

"ADVANTAGES of the San Leandro Canyon route are: (1) There is probably no grade in excess of 3 per cent on its entire routing to the tunnel; (2) it will travel on right-of-way already long established and which can probably be acquired at much less cost than any other route; (3) by appropriate location, it can give access for a lot of people who consider the area attractive and want to visit it; (4) it will interfere with a relatively small number of people living in the community; (5) it's better land utilization, according to expert land planners."

"OBJECTIONS are given as: (1) It's a mile and a half longer (but against this is the fact that grades are probably less than 3 per cent); (2) fear that it would damage the redwoods (this hardly seems tenable, if you stay at the railroad grade or above it); (3) fear of additional cost because of the extra length.

"THE DIRECT ROUTE favored by the state is said to have advantages of being shorter and cheaper.

"Its disadvantages would seem to be: (1) As presently planned, there would be over three miles of 6 per cent grade (the maximum grade on the present Tunnel Road is about 4 per cent); (2) it

Where to Dine Is Problem of Protocol for VA

Protocol of where Veterans Administration officials should dine became a temporarily embarrassing problem prior to last Monday night's huge protest meeting at Miramonte High School, against the proposed VA hospital site in southern Orinda.

The visiting VA officials, headed by Colonel R. M. Edgar from Washington, D.C., had been invited to have dinner with a group of local men, all of whom are among opponents of the proposed site.

As told by Robert Thaman, chairman of the Monday night public meeting, inquiries had been made regarding possibility of having dinner at Orinda Country Club, Casa Orinda or Orinda Willows — but all three places were unavailable.

"Frank Keller of Utah Construction Company offered the use of the company's cook shack in Moraga Valley," Thaman said. "I called Sam Franks, administrator of the VA Hospital in Oakland, and told him of the offer. He said, 'Fine.'"

"Then, about mid-afternoon Monday, Franks received a wire from Washington, which stated that the VA officials couldn't dine at the cook shack because Utah Company is fighting VA efforts to obtain the 20-acre site from Utah."

"So we ended up by eating at the Cape Cod House in Lafayette."

At dinner with the VA representatives, according to Thaman, were Thaman, Mel Arighi, president of the Orinda Association; Leo Alexander, chairman of the Fact Finders; Principal James Lewis of Miramonte High School; Lindsey Spight and Standish Massie.

Rifle Mishap Wounds Finger of Local Man

Rifle cleaning during a target shooting session sent John D. Sparling, 21, of 12905 Buchanan Road to the Kaiser hospital in Walnut Creek recently for gunshot wounds in the finger.

He was admitted to the hospital and is expected to be discharged in a few days.

Colonel Edgar's answer was that "We surveyed all these proposed sites, and covered them all. You can't pick an entirely safe site. We're doing the best we can."

THE THREAT, at first slow in responding to Thaman's request for question, now volunteered several speakers.

sium, when someone tacked a large glossy print of the proposed hospital over an area map on an easel on stage.

The soft boos and facetious hisses which greeted the photo were later voiced more earnestly as the discussion proceeded.

Cordial but reserved applause greeted the first speaker of the evening, the VA's assistant administrator for construction, Colonel R. M. Edgar, the man who had selected the site at Moraga Highway and Ivy Drive.

The white-haired, dignified man, introduced by chairman Robert Thaman, presented the VA's case simply and straightforwardly. He explained why the VA had picked the Orinda site, and presented its advantages to both the hospital and Orinda.

Concluding his talk, which he claimed was "unprepared, with the words 'This will be a fine building, and will do a fine job for our neighbors . . . and we are good neighbors,' the colonel received moderate applause from the expectant onlookers.

They weren't long in waiting to hear their side of the argument, as the next speaker was Neil Parsons, Acalanes High School District superintendent, who declared that "such a structure shouldn't be adjacent to the high school."

"We have to plan for expansion," he said, "as the school will eventually have to accommodate between 1500 and 1800 students."

THE AUDIENCE, hearing its sentiments expressed, gave Parsons a tremendous round of applause.

With each of the succession of anti-hospital speakers, the crowd warmed to its cause, and rapt attention paid each speaker was followed by fervent applause.

Throughout the succession, the VA representatives, of whom only Colonel Edgar was to speak, sat immobile on stage, betraying no reactions to the words which disparaged their cause.

After hearing four speakers present arguments against this site, which ranged from the resulting traffic difficulties, voiced by Lindsey Spight, to Mrs. Edith Erickson's conviction that we moved our school children here to "get away from that sort of thing," the throng well appreciated Standish Massie's move when he took the stage to point out alternate sites.

MASSIE WALKED directly to the easel and removed the picture of the modernist hospital to expose the county map beneath. A loud round of applause greeted the action.

Massie further captivated the audience by announcing four available sites in the area—one in Pinole, one in Martinez, one in Concord and one in Camp Stone—each of which was given a loud ovation.

With all the speakers on the stage having given their arguments, Thaman proceeded to call Jack Cummings, chairman of the county Board of Supervisors, out of the audience.

Thaman asked whether the VA had consulted county officials on the hospital.

Cummings replied in the negative, saying that as far as he knew the VA hadn't consulted anybody. He then delighted the audience by adding "We have a nice Crockett site we'd practically give the VA."

After calling on William Ward, the county director of civil defense, who said that some of Massie's proposed sites were good from a defense standpoint and some were not, Thaman threw the meeting open to questions and comments by the audience.

Ed Rowland, speaking from a mike in the rear of the auditorium, asked Colonel Edgar why he had picked this particular site.

Colonel Edgar's answer was that "We surveyed all these proposed sites, and covered them all. You can't pick an entirely safe site. We're doing the best we can."

THE THREAT, at first slow in responding to Thaman's request for question, now volunteered several speakers.

P. Philibosian of Camino Sobrante, also directed his query to Colonel Edgar.

"If 80 or 90 per cent of the people are against the hospital," he asked, "would you still build it here?"

The colonel's reply was the reason he came here from Washington to see how the people felt.

Thaman then stepped to the mike and asked everyone in the audience in favor of the hospital site to stand. Three people, in the rear of the hall, got to their feet.

Comments came fast from the floor following the show of unity behind the anti-hospital movement.

John McCaffery thanked the Orinda Association, among the leading opponents of the site, for its service to the community, and asked the colonel to go back to Washington and change the plans for the hospital.

Frank Keller, vice-president of the Utah Construction Company, owner of the proposed site, told the assembly that Utah had "asked the VA to discuss it (the site) with us, to see what could be worked out. We didn't encourage the VA to use the site," he stated.

"They did meet with us, and were kind and generous, but the next thing we knew they had filed a condemnation suit for the property," he continued.

Keller concluded, with voluble approval of the listeners, that "We will not sell the land for that purpose. They will have to take it from us."

JACK HELMS of Sleepy Hollow Lane spoke for less than a minute, but drew tremendous applause when he said "We have spoken no unkindly words to Colonel Edgar, and we have thrown no bricks. But . . . we are determined to protect our community, our homes and our children."

The first heavily discordant note was sounded when David Young, 28 Ivy Drive, speaking to Colonel Edgar, said, "You said you had been over all of these proposed sites. But have you the statistics on the living conditions, the acceptability, the responses of the people and the civil defense conditions of these sites?"

"Yes," answered the colonel. "We've covered utilities, transportation, location of residences, and other statistics. In about one and a half years this area will be ready for the hospital."

The colonel sat down but the ire of the assembly was raised.

WHAT'S DOING

Howard Greenhalgh, your Telephone Manager in Orinda

What makes a company a good citizen?

We, at the Telephone Company, often ask ourselves what makes a good citizen because both as men and women and as a Company we want to be the best citizens we can. A good citizen pays taxes, of course. And, naturally the Telephone Company does this, paying property taxes of $890,476 last year in this county alone. As you know, this money comes from the telephone bills you pay. And the tax dollars we pay are dollars that contribute a substantial amount to good government in the community. But we believe it's not enough just to be a taxpayer. So we try to do our part in the community in other ways. We think it is important to take part in the activities of the Community Chest, the Red Cross, the Boy and Girl Scouts and other community affairs. Fact is, we believe the ways of being a good citizen are unlimited and we're anxious to do our part.

Wish them well—by long distance

A wedding is one of the most important events in their lives. And a long distance call, wishing them well as they step out together, will make them feel extra good. For occasions like this or when you just want to take a few minutes to say hello to someone special, long distance is the warm and close way. Why not look in your directory and see how very little it costs to call someone very dear to you.

Women Voters Favor School Bond Issue

The League of Women Voters of California has gone on record as supporting a state-wide school construction bond issue to be voted upon in the general election in November, according to Mrs. Paul Craven, president of the Concord League.

Mrs. Craven and Mrs. James Worley, Concord, were local delegates to last week's state convention in Long Beach.

APPROVAL OF this bond issue was given by delegates after a year of intensive study of the financial and administrative structure of public education in California, they said.

The official argument in favor of the measure includes a statement that the bill has the active support of the League of Women Voters and "those students of government who are cognizant of the practical needs for serving the legislative branch of the government," they added.

She has attended the Governors' Conference on Education, and the San Francisco Conference on Public Education, the Alameda-Contra Costa Conference on Education, and also a Conference on the Direction and Improvement of Instruction in California.

Mrs. Mauzy helped organize Parent Teacher groups in elementary and high schools, and also the Contra Costa PTA, 32nd District.

She has been president of a PTA unit, member of a high school, president of the Mt. Diablo Council and a 32nd District director of education.

SHE HAS RECEIVED the PTA Life Membership. She also was for four years a director of the Walnut Festival, and five years a chairman of the Mothers March, in March of Dimes drives.

Defeated candidates in the Walnut Creek area were as follows: John R. Forde Jr., Allison D.

Mrs. Mauzy, Sam Bradbard Join County School Board

A Walnut Creek woman civic leader, and a Pleasant Hill attorney were elected to the seven-member County Board of Education, in balloting last Friday.

They are Mrs. Lucille Mauzy, a top official in Parent Teacher Association activities, and Samuel Bradbard, a director of the County Taxpayer's Association, member of the Pleasant Hill Civic Council and former deputy district attorney.

MRS. MAUZY is in area 7, and Bradbard in area 7. They will be central Contra Costa County's representatives on the board, which is chief advisor to Superintendent of Schools B. O. Wilson.

Bradbard led the field against 24 other candidates, who were each eligible for election in only one district, but who each depended on voters in all 35 districts.

He collected 664 votes. He is a graduate of the U. S. Naval Academy, Annapolis, and of the Boalt Hall of Law, University of California. He was an associate professor at the University of California, in 1944-45.

Bradbard also was a legal advisor to the county school district as deputy district attorney. He and his wife, Ellen and a son and daughter live at 120 Coats Circle, Pleasant Hill.

PART OF THE AUDIENCE OF 800 is shown at the Miramonte High School public meeting of last Monday night, which was held in protest against the proposed VA hospital site across from the school, in southern Orinda. Robert Thaman, acting chairman of the hastily formed Committee Against the Veterans Administration Hospital in Orinda, is at the microphone on the stage, addressing the crowd. He conducted the meeting. Top VA officials flew here from Washington, D.C., to be at the gathering. Following the meeting, Congressman John Baldwin urged VA to select another site.

Baldwin Urges New Site; 800 Protest VA's Plans

In addition, comments or questions were offered by William Ward, county civil defense director, and Ed Rowland of Lafayette.

AT ONE POINT Thaman asked those in favor of the proposed site to stand. Only three people, toward the rear of the large auditorium, stood up.

Colonel Edgar told the audience: "I am responsible for picking the site out here — and no one else is. Upon the recommendation I make, after this meeting this evening, the selection will be made by the Administration."

Following the meeting, Colonel Edgar did not reveal what his recommendation would be, but he stressed he had come here to learn the views of the local people.

He described the projected hospital for the VA Hospital in Oakland — planned as a replacement as "a 500-bed general medical hospital — not a TB hospital, and not a neuro-psychiatric hospital."

He said the hospital would "be back 400 or 500 feet from Moraga Highway and at least that far from the school building."

EDGAR STATED that decision favoring a site in this general area had been made because of the policy of dispersal of industry and installations, as a defense measure — "that's why we're not locating in Oakland."

Regarding protection in case of emergency, Edgar said: "We're thinking of the basement and first floor being reinforced. The rest of the building is expendable."

He added that in event of emergency, the patients and staff of the eight-story hospital could be evacuated from the upper floors to the basement and first floor.

Edgar stressed that in its deliberations, VA had been in close touch with the Federal Civil Defense Administration.

COUNTY CIVIL Defense Director Ward was asked by Thaman if he could state the attitude of his office regarding the proposed site.

"We have no authority either to approve or disapprove the site," Ward replied.

Thaman asked if Ward could state an attitude toward alternative sites which had been suggested by Massie.

"Some would be excellent, being beyond a 20-mile limit from target areas; others would not be so good," Ward said.

SITES WHICH had been suggested by Massie were:

1. Approximately 20 acres near Pinole.
2. Within the city limits of Martinez, about two miles from downtown Martinez.
3. Camp Stoneman.
4. Some 23 acres about four miles east of Concord.

Later this week the Pleasanton City Council and the Pleasanton Chamber of Commerce proposed Parks Air Force Base as the site for the hospital.

PARSONS DECLARED that the Acalanes district trustees feel that "a veterans' hospital or any hospital should not be next to a high school."

"We are responsible for the students' welfare," he added.

"Also, there are many activities at the schools, and the location of the hospital would not be good for the veterans."

MRS. ERICKSON reiterated a number of the main arguments of Parsons, and stated:

"We do want the best for our veterans — but we also want the best for our children."

Spight pointed out that 38,000 cars per day traverse Mt. Diablo Boulevard between the Broadway Low-Level Tunnel and Orinda; that 7000 cars daily use Moraga Highway between "Orinda Corners" and Glorietta, and that for the two-miles between Glorietta and the proposed hospital site, "4500 cars per day to and from Orinda were using this stretch as of a traffic check made only last month."

"THIS SITE," he stressed, "is three and a half miles from any public transportation — Greyhound buses. The only transportation for this three and a half miles consists of one taxicab."

Arighi emphasized that residents of the Orinda-Moraga area have "invested substantial sums in their homes" and that the proposed hospital site would harm the residential character of the community.

KELLER SAID the proposed site "would be bad for the community." He added, "Utah will not sell the land for this purpose. They will have to take it away from us."

Keller told The Sun this week — as he had reported at last week's Orinda Association board meeting — that recently Kermit Lincoln had paid Utah Company a deposit on 43 lots directly across from the high school, "about half or a little more of the 20 acres sought by VA."

Price of the lots for Lincoln would be $4500 each, Keller said.

Monday Deadline to Sign For Museum Program

The Diablo Junior Museum will again hold a summer workshop program in natural science, with two classes, one at East Contra Costa Junior College for older children and the other at the new Walnut Creek School for younger children.

Deadline for applications is Monday, so this is the last chance to sign up your child.

THE JUNIOR COLLEGE program will begin June 25 and run for six weeks and will involve, for each student, two hours of lab work and four hours in the field per week.

A child must be at least nine years old to enroll and the program will be conducted by Ferd Ruth and Erv Metzgar. Fee for the course is $6, payable in advance. Those children which enjoyed the program last year are urged to sign up for an advanced program which will not be a repeat of the material they were presented last year.

The second course will be conducted at the Walnut Creek School for seven-to-nine year old children and will be conducted by John Bruce. Fee for this course, which will also begin June 25 and run through August 10, is $4.

THE PROGRAM will involve one period per week, the length of the period depending upon the age group involved.

Enrollment is limited in both workshops and admission will be on a first come first serve basis.

The following coupon may be clipped, filled out and mailed to Diablo Junior Museum, Seven Hills Ranch, Walnut Creek. Further information may be obtained from Alex Lindsay at YE 5-1724.

Success of Art Festival Forecasts Repeat in '57

The first Diablo Art Festival, which ended on Sunday, was considered a "great success" by its organizers and participants, according to artist Katy Madsen.

"Not only local art lovers, but many out of town visitors viewed the work displayed in over 150 store windows and on 50 panels," she said.

Visitors watched demonstrations of many arts and crafts, among which were, enameling on copper, glass blowing, work on a potter's wheel, silver casting, textile painting, block printing, oil and water color painting, mosaics and portrait painting," she added.

At the Recreation Center a children's program was offered including a Hawaiian dance by 31 girl scouts, choir selections by children of the Walnut Creek Presbyterian Church and cartoon comedies, on Saturday afternoon.

THE ARTISTS and Models Ball, sponsored by the Jaycees, was held on Saturday night and those receiving prizes were Donald and Gerry Yuen, Alamo, (best dressed couple) Javanese dancers, Arnold Cass, Concord, (best dressed man) bandaged accident patient.

Ila Marie Snapp, Concord (best dressed woman) lady bull fighter; Dick Dickinson, Walnut Creek, (funniest costume) tramp. Don and Flo Hasper, Walnut Creek (best dance team); and Barbara McIntosh took the door prize, an order for a Madsen portrait.

Folk dancing and square dancing formed a colorful part of the proceedings on Sunday afternoon.

At a ceremony in the Recreation Hall, Mrs. Jack Kerstetter gave the awards from the Jaycees to the winners of the children's art show.

Barney Gilbert made the awards to the winners of the Walnut Creek Realty Board's contest.

There was a flurry of excitement recently when dark smoke was observed pouring out through the trees in back of the school — but it wasn't a real fire, it was only the Stiles house being burned, to make room for more watershed.

Even though the recent rains have depressed many there is one sunny thought for those who have oak trees. Haven't you missed the chopping of the oak moth caterpillar at work this spring? Remember about this time last year, if you hadn't sprayed, your oaks were a pretty sorry sight — noisy, too.

But the "inside dope" straight from a local weather prophet is that those oak pests which survive will have an even more rugged time next winter — prediction based on sun spots, he says.

The mystery of the Perfumed Bank Statement. That's the whole story. The bank people disclaim any knowledge of the scented statements. It is NOT a new humane way of breaking the usual sad news, they said. But it's a thought, isn't it? Imagine that batch of first-of-the-month mail smelling like a bouquet of flowers.

You could identify each one — "Brilliance," the light bill; on the telephone bill soft ly, wafts up, "Whisper," your nose will gently break the shock of the TV bill by sniffing Chanel No. 5. The possibilities are without end. I guess "My Sin" would pretty well cover all the department store bills.

Kid Kwp: One of our local horsemen told of a little 8 year old neighbor girl who was allowed to ride his horse now and then. This particular day she greeted him with a big hug, then planting an enthusiastic kiss on his cheek, she exclaimed, "There! That's because I love — your horse so much."

Herbert Ofstad, a newcomer to Canyon from Washington state, reports a most unpleasant experience, which could have been disastrous. Recently, while he spent a quiet evening in his living room, thieves stealthily removed the two new front tires and wheels from his Dodge, which was backed into the driveway in front of his house.

He did not discover the loss, however, until the next morning on his way to work going up Pinehurst Road, where the car had a blowout. The thieves had replaced his tires with thread-bare ones. The blow-out occurred on an inside curve — a short distance farther he would have been traveling on the outer edge of the grade.

HORSE SPIRITS

Last Saturday was overcast and cold, but the weather certainly didn't cool the interest and enthusiasm displayed at the Rheem Center Junior Horse Show. It is hard to realize there are so many horses and admirers in this area, but when they are grouped in one small plot of land, one does well to stay out from under foot.

Excitement ran high for the contestants and those of us indirectly connected. A very good number of youngsters from Moraga were entered and a lot of fine prizes and colorful ribbons were taken home. Most of the Juniors of this area were participating for the first time and they were up against many fine and experienced riders.

A big hand goes to all the contributing merchants who made this show a possibility, and an especially BIG hand to Frank Kerrigan, president of the Rheem Merchants Association, who, although this was his first show too, did an excellent job.

Voting Day is over and every one can relax. According to 70 votes, Barney Glasky of 280 Rheem-Boulevard, was the best man, and is now our new School Trustee, serving on the Board with John Sanders and Harry Rohrer. Barney was followed by Ed Bisar, 64 votes, and Fred Fortner and Ray Devin.

Application for the School Bond received 158 Yes, and 12 No. Application for State Aid received 158 Yes and 12 No.

For Acalanes Union High School District: Ralph C. Hall—75 votes; Patrick Frances Conway—63 votes.

Will C. Hall—21 votes. Last week saw the finish of the Fireman's First Aid Resuscitation Course, which had been offered in Moraga. This was a 15 hour course sponsored by the Contra Costa County Junior College, which carries a regular class in Firemanship, and was for the specific purpose to teach the proper techniques in using the resuscitator which the Fire Department now has.

"Red" Gallagher, Red Cross First Aid Instructor, who taught the class, is fire chief at Dow Chemical. Approximately 12 persons attended each class, which consisted of three hours, once a week for five weeks. Of that number, three were wives of firemen.

Which brings us to the interesting part and provoked the comment by the instructor that he would be happy to teach in this community again, any time.

At each session, coffee and a home-baked cake or pie, furnished by the feminine part of the class, made an otherwise long three hours pass very pleasantly.

Announcing the arrival of a brand-new Moragan are Joe and Maria Rodriguez, who on May 16 traveled to the Kaiser Foundation Hospital in Walnut Creek to welcome their first baby, Maria Emma.

Maria was born at 9:12 p.m., was 20 inches long and weighed 7 pounds, 15 ounces. She came home to Moraga with her happy parents this weekend, but they are now wondering whether SHE is so happy, since she spent most of her first night crying. Such is life, and don't I know it?

A BABE'S A BABE. In the same vein, but of a different species, another new baby put in her appearance on May 18. Mrs. Betty Parker's mare, Jubilee, whose sire was Tack, presented a perfect little filly, which Betty named Cindy Pin-Ears.

The name is a take-off from her sire, who is Monte Pin-Ears. The paternal grandfather was a famous Quarterhorse, Lucky Blanton.

According to reports, the little filly, at the old age of 12 months, was giving her mother, Jubilee, a bad time, by running around her in circle, until she became dizzy trying to keep her eye on her baby. Afraid I would, too!

Visitors in our neighborhood this week are Mr. and Mrs. Ella Zanotto, parents of Charles J. Marin of Larch Road. Mr. and Mrs. Zanotto are residents of Dunsmuir, Calif., and are planning on spending a couple of weeks with their son and family.

Of special interest is that Mr. Zanotto, who is a retired railroad man, is 74 years old, but has been getting a lot of exercise by cutting all the neighbors' grass for Chuck's horses with a long scythe.

Mrs. Marin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Warren, of Fresno, plan to be here in another week for a

Meurk, Ambler Elected

Voters last Friday elected Carl R. Meurk and Louis B. Ambler to the Orinda School District Board of Trustees for the coming school year.

Meurk, with 567, received by far the greatest number of votes. In winning the second open seat on the board, Ambler had 394 votes, nosing out the 340 votes of Herbert A. Waterman.

The two new board members will join Mrs. C. A. L. Schwaerck, Nathan G. Gray and Karl Schevill as trustees. Other candidates were Charles A. Hunt, with 83 votes; William Koch, 209; and Ernest Starkman, 315.

In a pre-election statement to The Sun, Meurk presented a program which he claimed school board efficiency demands. It included open discussion of board problems, foresight in maintaining an up-to-date policy, provisions for informing the community and civic organizations of school needs, and a variety of training and knowledge among the school board of trustees.

Meurk is an engineer who has lived in this area for 6 1/2 years. "I am aware of the importance a school board position is to the community welfare," he said. "I am pledged to serve my Orinda friends and neighbors in all areas of the district," said Ambler before the election, "and to support a teaching program and physical plant which will contribute effectively toward the greatest possible student achievement."

Ambler, a landscape architect and site planner, has lived in Orinda for nearly 11 years.

Bids Will Open On San Pablo Road Project

Bids have been called for the major link in reconstruction of the 11-mile long road between the reservoir dam and the S. S. Pablo Dam Road, which connects San Pablo with the Orinda Crossroads.

The Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors approved plans and specifications for the revamping last Tuesday.

The supervisors will receive the bids July 3 for a five-mile section of the 11-mile long road between the reservoir dam and the Bear Creek-Wildcat Canyon Road intersection.

The other portion will go to the Berkeley branch of the Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barber Shop Quartet Singing in America, Incorporated, which will participate at the concert along with six other groups.

The Berkeley group is not actually a quartet, but a 40-man chorus of barbershop singers from all over the Bay area which will travel to Minneapolis next month for national vocal competition. Admission to the concert is $1.25.

Survivors, in addition to her parents include her maternal grandmother, Mrs. William A. Shedd of Berkeley; her paternal grandfather, Q. Deane Langworthy of Berkeley; an uncle, Kendrick Shedd of Berkeley; and two cousins, Mrs. Donald Ermann of San Francisco and Mrs. Ronald Case of Los Angeles.

The family asked that in lieu of flowers, contributions be made to the American Cancer Society. Gail's friends at Miramonte are planning a suitable tribute to her, at the school.

Four Sent to Hospital as Car Rams Pole

Two youthful Orindans and their two companions were taken to the Kaiser Hospital in Walnut Creek Sunday night after their car failed to stop at an intersection and plied into a power pole and walnut tree.

The incident occurred at Oak Grove Road and Treat Lane in Ygnacio Valley, as the driver, Michael R. Kleiment, 20, 16 Valley View Road, Louis G. Hooper Jr., 21, 15 El Sereno Road, and Sue Carroll of San Francisco and Barbara Jensen of Berkeley crossed Oak Grove Road in a car apparently out of control.

All four were treated for minor injuries. The accident was put under investigation.

The fire department, joined hands with lady luck, averted what might have been a disastrous fire last Wednesday at the home of C. C. DeWitt, 11 La Cuesta.

When a blaze started around the furnace in the attic of the DeWitt home Wednesday morning, Mrs. DeWitt smelled the smoke and immediately called the department.

Arriving shortly thereafter, the firemen extinguished the blaze after only minor damage to the roof of the house had been done.

According to Mrs. DeWitt, only the furnace and a small portion of the roof must be replaced.

Junior Museum, 'Preserve' Proposed for Heather Farm

Philanthropy by Phil Bancroft Sr., and purchaser of the $1 million Heather Farm, east of Walnut Creek, make possible the location of a Junior Museum building and preservation of a lake as a natural habitat on Heather Farm, and the creation of a recreation center nearby on the other side of San Carlos Drive.

The City Planning Commission Wednesday night was told that Bancroft had offered to donate for recreation five acres of land east of San Carlos to either the Junior Museum Association or the city of Walnut Creek, depending on gift tax considerations.

They were also informed that the Junior Museum group has been offered another five acres, including the lake on Heather Farm by Atherton financier Thomas G. Stone, contingent on the Bancroft grant.

ASSOCIATION President Alex Lindsay said that he had received a letter only that afternoon, with the offer from Bancroft. This makes more than a year by the negotiations by Museum directors who have sought an area for nature study and recreation.

King Crosno, spoke for Stone, after an engineer, Charles Blair, presented an application for annexation to Walnut Creek of Unit No. 1 in Heather Farms, including 213 acres east and north of Ygnacio Valley Road.

The planners recommended for approval the annexation, which includes the lake with stipulations, and administration by the city of a recreational program on Bancroft property, when details are made satisfactory to the city.

The area which would be dedicated either to the Junior Museum or the City of Walnut Creek runs 1100 feet along the east side of San Carlos Drive, also known as Sheppard Road, and is 180 to 300 feet wide.

IT IS JUST north of a 10-acre parcel decided by Bancroft to the Diablo School District, and considered for construction of a school.

There, possibly a baseball diamond and other facilities may be constructed, and the City Recreation Department, under Mrs. Ruth Wallis would supervise activities.

Complete approval by the planners, however, will depend on the outcome of an on-the-spot inspection by City Attorney John Nejedly, Lindsay, Mrs. Wallis, and Mrs. Bancroft, to be held soon to determine if city requirements can be met.

The lake on the Heather Farm and a fringe of land about it is across San Carlos Road, in the northern portions of the property.

IT WOULD be fenced in, and stocked with wildlife, as geese, ducks, frogs, turtles, and all sorts of fish life, according to Lindsay.

There would be no boating or swimming, but the area would be a ideal for observation by persons participating in recreational activities on the other dedicated parcel, he added.

On the same parcel is room enough for construction of placement of Junior Museum.

"It might be feasible to move an old building there, but Junior Museum directors have been thinking that with volunteer aid by area contractors and interested persons, we may be able to build a new building," said Lindsay.

WITHIN WOULD be housed scores of projected miniature exhibits, which the Association is already constructing, under a perpetend at the Pine Grove School. Bids will be opened at 10:00 a.m. on Tuesday, June 12, 1956, at the Office of the District Superintendent, and will be awarded at a Special Meeting of the Board of Trustees, Tuesday, June 19, 1956, at 7:00 p.m. at the Pine Grove School.

By order of the Board of Trustees of the Orinda Union School District.

Dated: May 21, 1956.

Schedules Will Be Planned for Boys' Baseball

Another meeting of interested parents and committee members will be held at the Pine Grove School library at 7:45 Tuesday night, to prepare schedules and rules for three leagues of summer baseball for boys.

This was announced yesterday by Frank Isola, physical education director for the Orinda School District, who reported that meetings were held Tuesday and Wednesday nights of this week.

Financing of the Orinda summer recreation baseball leagues will be given a boost at 8 o'clock tonight when the Orinda All-Stars (men) will engage in a benefit basketball game with football players of the San Francisco 49ers at the Miramonte High School gym. Proceeds will aid the local summer recreation baseball program.

PRIOR TO TONIGHT'S basketball thriller, Cootie Thompson, former professional pitcher, will discuss the perspectives of the Orinda baseball program for boys.

At this week's meetings, samples of equipment were displayed. Plans are afoot for three separate leagues — one for third and fourth grade boys, who will use a rubber ball, another for fifth and sixth graders, who will use a 10-inch hard rubber ball, and a third league for seventh and eighth graders, who will use the regulation hardball.

SIGNUP DEADLINE for boys is next Friday, Isola said. Any parents or boys interested are requested to get in touch with him at the Pine Grove School.

Isola asked that any dads with power mowers and a yen to be of service, go with their power mowers to the nearest grammar school diamond in Orinda at 11 a.m. tomorrow to trim grass in order to get diamonds in shape for future play.

Games will be played twice weekly during the summer months, at 7 p.m. Wednesdays and on Saturday mornings, according to Isola.

Isola said that he expects 20 teams to be included in the three leagues.

A division of one automobile company uses 131 acres of reproduction paper each year to duplicate engineering drawings for distribution throughout the company.

Man in Capitol To Dispute VA Orinda Hospital

The Veterans Administration's Orinda hospital dispute has sent a local man to Washington as an opponent of the hospital's selected Orinda site.

L. B. Harmon, 63 Donna Maria Way, arrived in the Capitol Wednesday to confer with influential interested parties on the issue.

Harmon, combining this mission with a private business trip, is director of Moraga Del Rey Improvement Association, a group avowedly opposed to the hospital site.

He acts as the association's representative and is hoping to present its formal protest to Senators William Knowland and Thomas A. Kuchel and Representative John Baldwin.

Harmon also carried to Washington several copies of last week's Orinda Sun, which published a reflection of the Orinda population's negative reaction to this placement of the hospital.

He expects to return early in June with a report of the progress he made.

Piano Pupils to Present Recital

Mrs. Margaret Winters will present the music of 32 of her pupils at a piano recital Sunday at 3 p.m. at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Wallace Neighbor, 30 La Cienega.

PHHS Rams Drop DVAL Champions

Rams Knock DV Champs

By MIKE FARMER

Adding insult to injury, Lyle Palmer's Pleasant Hill baseball team handed the Mt. Diablo Devils, DVAL champions, their second defeat of the week May 17. Three double plays aided hurler Ray Johansen, who went the distance for Pleasant Hill in the 4-3 victory.

Diablo scoring was confined to the first inning, as the Devils put three men across on two hits. Sunny Cordes opened the frame with a walk, moved to second on a sacrifice bunt by Jerry Walsh and scored on Steve Bordi's single.

An overthrow to first put Bordi on third and Marty Pergament on second. Catcher Dave Stafford drove in the runners with a double to wrap up Devil scoring for the game.

Ram catcher Leon Lewis instigated a series of one-run innings for Pleasant Hill with a homerun to center in the second.

Pleasant Hill leadoff batter Tom Larscheid went to first on a fielder's choice in the third frame. Larscheid reached second safely on a wild throw from the plate and scored on an error at first base.

Bill Locatelli's single to right in the fourth put the tying run on base. A single apiece by Gary Scott and Ray Johansen, plus a walk to Tom Larscheid scored Locatelli.

The winning run of the game came in the ninth inning, as Ray Johansen went to first on a single. An intentional walk to Tom Larscheid proved to be poor strategy, since it was followed by an unintentional one to Wall Robb and a single by Bill Nixon which drove the tie-breaking run across.

Ray Johansen led the Rams in the batting department with three hits for four trips. Diablo's fireball hurler, Rod Atnip, took the loss for the Devils. Atnip has a two and two win-loss record in two years of Diablo-Pleasant Hill competition.

Maddux of PHHS Elected NCGA Prexy for Year

At the conclusion of Saturday's Northern California Gymnastics Association varsity championship meet in Berkeley, Pleasant Hill High coach Gordon Maddux was elected to serve as Association president for the 1956-57 school year.

Maddux, whose teams were the Bee champions and varsity runners-up in 1956 competition, stated that the league is planning for expansion for the coming year from the present ten-team league to an 18 school member group. Also on tap is a tentative rezoning of competing schools to facilitate meet competition and league administration.

Fall and winter planning meetings, at which time the remaining officers will be appointed, will have as their objectives the planning of the season schedule and programming for California Interscholastic Federation approval of gymnastics as a competitive sport on the same basis as the now-recognized events.

League rules standards will also be on the agenda.

Dons Beat Devils By Score of 2-1

The league-leading Diablo Devils brought their baseball team to town May 17 and threw their ace righthander, Rod Atnip only to go down before an inspired Acalanes club, 2-1.

The win cinched a second place at least for the Dons, and a possible tie for first.

The game was a brilliant pitching duel between Atnip and the Dons' diminutive portside, Mike Barrett.

Barrett, in hot water at times due to walks, had a no-hitter until the fifth, when a single off the bat of Center Fielder Bordi broke the ice.

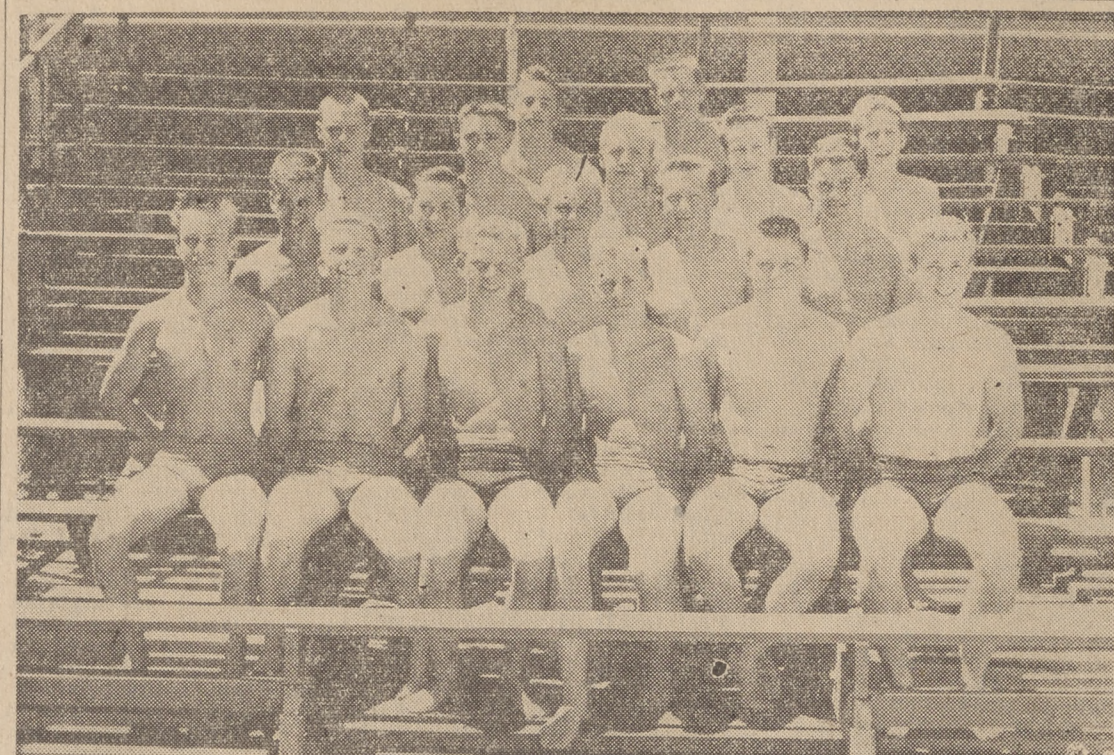

THE DONS got their first hits in the fourth when First Baseman Jim Dinkel and Right Fielder Gordon Napolitano led off with singles, only to die on second and third, due to a fielder's choice and two strikeouts getting the Devils out of trouble.

The Devils were back in hot water in the fifth, however, when Barrett was on after the Devils' shortstop booted a ground ball, to put one on and none away.

Atnip struck out Nelson, and Bojarsky made it to first, to put two on when he beat out a ground ball.

Third baseman Rich Markstein, net at bat, found one to his liking and drove a single to right center, scoring Barrett and Bojarsky.

THAT MADE IT 2-0 and proved to be the ball game, as Diablo scored a run in the sixth when Atnip walked and scored on Right Fielder Cordes' single. Cordes was out when he tried to stretch it to a double.

Knight Lights Nab County Swim Title

The Las Lomas lightweight swimmers, under Coach Ed Leach, recently culminated a most successful season by coping first place in the county swim meet held at Mt. Diablo High's pool after winning 11 and losing one in dual competition.

In the North Coast Section meet held at Santa Clara, in which 44 schools competed, the Knights wound up in 8th place.

Prior to winning the county title, the Knights took second place in the Diablo Valley Athletic League and the Divisional meet.

The championship was the first one by Las Lomas in league competition, and bids well for the future of swimming at Las Lomas.

The Knight paddlers, since getting their pool, have come a long way in the water sport and loom as one of the powers to be.

Outstanding members of the championship crew are Barney Howard, Doug Ready, Pete McJean, Pete Ostrom, Larry Telford, Manfred Weiler and Harlan Kenyon.

Acalanes Takes 7th in Northern Area Track Meet

The North Coast Section I track meet was held at San Lorenzo last Friday afternoon, and when the results were all in Pittsburg High topped the Diablo Valley Athletic League representatives by scoring twenty two points to tie with El Cerrito for fourth place.

Berkely High with 50 1/2 was first, Richmond with 44 second, and Encinal came in third with 23 1/2.

Liberty of Brentwood was 6th with 16 points, while Acalanes was 7th with 10. Other scores were as follows: Piedmont 10, Diablo 10, San Lorenzo 9, Alameda 6, Las Lomas 6, Pleasant Hill 5 1/2, San Ramon 5 1/2, Alhambra 4, Emeryville 2 1/2 and Hayward 1.

Place winners from the local area were Bob Karlrud of Las Lomas with a second in the high hurdles, Williams of Pittsburg, second in the 100 yard dash.

Butch De Villers of Acalanes, 4th in the Low Hurdles, Larry Pileler of Acalanes, 3rd in the 440 yard run, Williams of Pittsburg, second in the 220, Trett of Diablo, 4th in the 220, Pittsburg, third in the relay, Las Lomas 5th in the relay, Don Mattson of Diablo first in the shot.

Crane of Pleasant Hill and McCarty of San Ramon tied for first in the pole vault while Pivra of Diablo tied for 4th. In the discus John Cadwell was second for Acalanes and Vagliente of Pittsburg took 5th.

In the Bee meet Encinal with 40 points topped the meet. Pittsburg was 4th with 27 1/2 while Acalanes had 16 1/6 for 5th. Diablo was tied for 6th with Berkeley as both tallied 15 points. Miramonte was next with 11 points.

San Ramon was 14th with 4. Antioch wound up tied for 17th with Pleasant Hill, each scoring 1 point.

Jeff Smith of the Dons tossed the discus 115' 10 1/4" for a tie with Johnson of Encinal for second.

turn at bat to score a run when leadoff batter firstbaseman Jim Dinkel hit a booming right and rightfielder Gordon Napolitano followed with a single to score Dinkel.

The score stayed at 2-1 and turned into a pitching duel between Gonzales for Pitt and Steve Jordan for the Dons, with the issue only decided in the bottom of the seventh when the Dons scored a pair of runs on a drive to left field by shortstop Gary Hansen.

In the 7th and trailing 2-1, Alan Sutton, the Dons leftfielder, lead off with a single. Speedy Mike Barrett replaced him as a runner and he went to third when Ron Nelson, second baseman, cracked out a double.

Seconds later Hansen hit the first pitch for a double, driving in both runs, and with them the win.

The Dons outthit the Pirates 7-4. Pitt had two errors to the Dons' one.

JOHN MCCORMACK, former Olympic star and two time national tower diving champion, demonstrates the form he will display Sunday at the Frank McGuigan Swim School, 1075 Carol Lane, Lafayette. The aqua show, which will benefit the Olympic Fund, will also feature Ann Curtis and local swim stars.

Sibley Tosses 3-Hitter for Las Lomas Win

The Las Lomas baseball nine traveled to Concord on May 17 to wind up their season, and they made it a good one when they rapped Pacifica, 7-1.

Paced by stickers Terry Yeager, who had a pair of singles in two times at bat, and Bob Duchene with a single and double in three trips to the plate, the Knights had little trouble in notching the win once they warmed to the task.

Pacifica did throw a scare into the Knights as they scored their run on two hits in the 3rd, only to have the Las Lomas club find the range in the 6th to score 7 runs on 5 hits and three walks.

Joe Sibley went the route on the mound for the winners, giving up but 3 hits, striking out 14 and giving up nary a walk.

Al Burton threw the first six for Pacifica with Jim Raber taking over in the 7th.

Between them they gave up 7 hits, struck out 8 and gave up 10 bases on balls.

In the error column it was Las Lomas 2, Pacifica 1.

Antioch Hiders Swamp Dons 14-2

The Acalanes Dons took a long ride to Antioch on May 17, but it was a much longer ride back home as they dropped a 14-2 baseball game to the Antioch Panthers.

Playing ragged ball in their poorest game of the season, the Dons took it on the chin after making it 2 to 2 at the end of the second.

The roof fell in the third, however, when 5 hits along with three walks and a pair of home runs gave the Antioch nine 9 runs and an 11-2 lead.

Antioch added three more runs in the 6th on one hit, a wild pitch, an error, and a pair of fielder's choice plays.

Steve Jordan went 2 1/2 innings for the Dons, with Mike Barrett going the rest of the way. Bob Schrette went the route for Antioch, giving up 8 hits and issuing 10 walks.

Antioch had 8 hits and received 5 bases on balls. The Dons committed 4 errors while Antioch had none.

Ferrarese Has Tough Row As Oriole Support Fails.

By ERWIN MATTSON

Dan Ferrarese continues to hit the headlines with his pitching prowess, and in his latest outing had a shutout up to the ninth against the Detroit Tigers, only to lose out when a ball was booted by the first baseman.

It is a matter of record that in three games he has pitched top flight ball, yet has one win as against two losses, largely due to the fact that his club, the Baltimore Orioles, have made but a grand total of three runs in three games — that really makes it tough to win.

In his game against the Yanks, with a no hitter and two down in the 9th, Andy Carey hit one of Don's fast balls down and into the plate, causing it to bound high into the air.

Ferrarese juggled it and Carey beat it out, although it was reported doubtful if he could have retired Carey even without the juggle act.

IT IS INTERESTING to note that had the foul ball in the American League it is considered a fair ball under such conditions.

The plate is actually all in fair territory, so on a logical basis it should be a fair ball whenever it hits the plate and stays in fair territory.

Work will soon begin on the Acalanes track to get it in top shape for the Far Western Women's Olympic tryouts.

A large group of feminine athletes are expected to be on hand for the tryouts, which include all U. S. territory west of the Mississippi.

THE EVENT should draw capacity crowds and will find nationwide coverage by newspapers and magazines for the event, which should bring lots of favorable publicity to the area.

Las Lomas High really came into their own in many ways this year with a fine football team that came in second in league standings, and the swimming season winding up with their Bee paddlers taking first place in the Big Diablo Valley Athletic League meet held at Mt. Diablo High pool.

THE DONS have had a good spring season with the varsity swimmers copping the League, then winning the North Coast meet for the first time by any school in Contra Costa County.

It looks like a repeat performance next year as the Dons lose mightily few lettermen from this season's squad.

THE DON golfers and tennis players were undefeated in league play, both copping pennants.

The Dons' varsity baseball team was in second place at this writing with a mathematical chance of tying Mt. Diablo for first.

Las Lomas looks to have a good football club back with a good nucleus of veterans. The big problem will be speed and adequate replacements in the backfield.

Lack of top speed is causing Coach DeKlot to get a few more wrinkles in his brow.

Pittsburg is one club that seems to have football speed year after year.

On paper Coach Tony Knapp claims he will have the most You're the Driver-- If You Vote June 5!

Are you dissatisfied with the way our county government is run?

Do you think our incumbent state legislators and United States senators are doing good jobs or poor jobs?

Yes, Mr. Jones and Mrs. Smith — and all you other voters — now is the time you can do something about the situation, by continuing good governmental service or by making changes where necessary.

You are in the driver's seat — that is, if you vote in the primary election a week from next Tuesday.

On the other hand, if you don't vote, you certainly won't have good reason for criticizing later developments.

The primary election, June 5, is only 11 days away. For whom are you going to vote? What issues are involved? What do the candidates believe?

You still have 11 days to study the candidates and the issues. You should read the newspapers and the campaign literature.

For some weeks now, The Sun has published "The Battle Page," where the views of the candidates are expressed.

In addition, you'll find in The Sun this week and next, a series of questions which The Sun asked the candidates running for supervisor in District 2, and the candidates' answers.

Some of our readers do not vote in District 2 — but we think these questions are of countywide importance and that any resident of Contra Costa County will find them and the answers interesting and enlightening.

To further help you decide how to vote, The Sun joins with the Jaycees in sponsoring a Candidates' Night at 8 p.m. next Monday at Acalanes High School auditorium.

You'll have the opportunity of seeing and hearing the candidates (or their representatives) for Congress, Assembly, State Senate and supervisor, and of asking them questions. (See story elsewhere in this issue.)

You've heard this before — but there can be no question of the validity or importance of this statement:

Voting is not only a privilege but a duty. If you want good government, you, too, must participate.

What They Say Vacationers Take to Hills

Ol' Sol is warming up to his summer tasks, and the locals are beginning to rush frantically about trying to protect themselves from his wrath, and the weatherman's.

Several solutions to this mercury dilemma come to mind. One of them is to spend the summer safely tucked away in a cold storage or refrigerator. This being impractical, another would be to make a thorough study of sun-tan lotions and bikini bathing suits, and with this new-found knowledge and equipment, bask in a backyard paradise.

A third solution is to take a vacation and "get away from it all." If you prefer, of course, you may take it with you, if you think a different environment will help it at all.

What are you going to do? Here's what some locals told the inquiring reporter of their vacation plans.

Mrs. Bertha Leloy, 1018 Walnut Drive, Lafayette, doesn't plan on doing much of anything about a vacation as yet.

"We've been far too busy working in the garden so far to think about a vacation," she answered. The problem of indecision is also prevalent at the home of Mrs. Joseph R. Davi, whose family just hasn't decided where they'll spend their vacation.

"I really don't know," she said. "We have no definite vacation plans as yet, but we think it'll be Lake Tahoe for us."

Tahoe has been the standard sanctuary for the Davi household.

Mrs. Dewey L. Otta, 126 Meadow Lane, Orinda, has very good reasons for not planning any vacation.

"I'm moving to Dallas to make my home there," was her reply. "The traveling will be sort of a vacation. I'm afraid our vacation will have to be sort of piecemeal this year."

Vacation problems can be solved right at home, is the attitude of Charles E. Ivy, 16 Greenwood Court, Orinda. His family intends staying right at home, and enjoying it.

"We're putting in a new swimming pool," he told us, "so we're planning on sticking around and taking advantage of it."

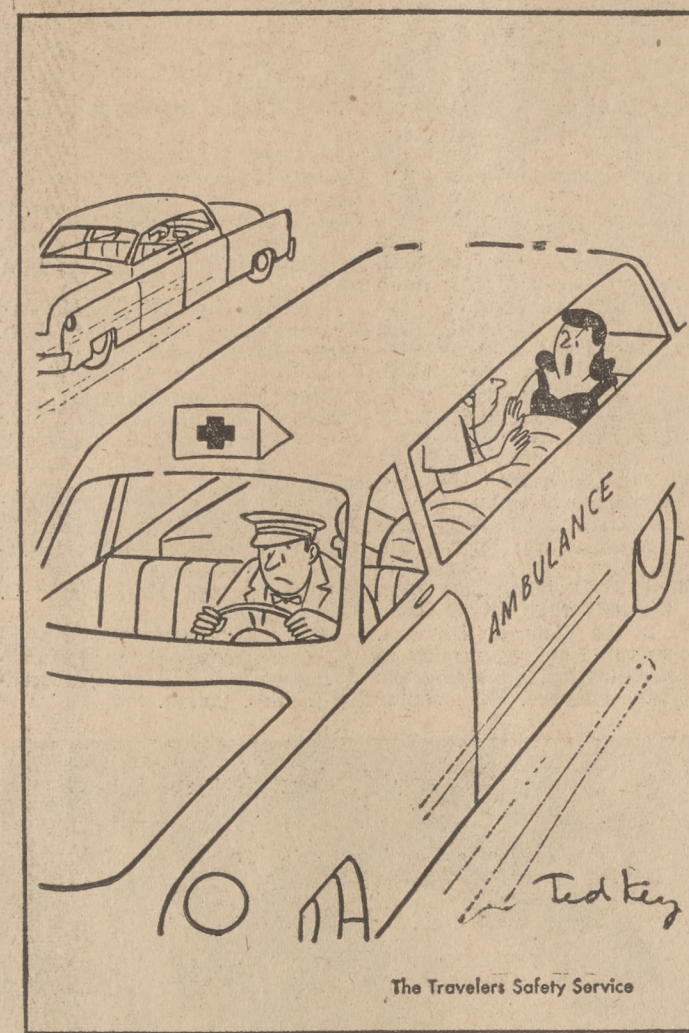

"We are still up in the air, and probably won't decide until the last minute," intoned Donald Mc-

Fatal Fallacies

by Ted Key

"Stop sign ahead... Watch that car... Not so fast... Man crossing... Easy on..."

The timing is unfortunate for Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Daniels of 1024 Margery Lane, Pleasant Hill, and their children, Peter, 13, Mike, 11, Beverly, 5.

"Last year we all went camping in Oregon. It gives us a chance to be together," said Mrs. Daniels.

"But this year our vacation isn't until October, when school has started, so we've got a problem."

DAVID REALLY isn't two years old, but he will be on Sunday.

Letters to The Editor

DEAR EDITOR:

Whoever permitted the little black, VERY OLD Boston Bull dog to become an emaciated, tottering wreck, completely blind with cataracts over both eyes, and an ugly growth in one eye beside — and whoever permitted this dog, unlicensed, either to be dumped, or to wander COMPLETELY BLIND and COMPLETELY DEAF in the vicinity of Mt. Diablo Blvd. — and directly onto the highway in the dark of night — is apparently an individual devoid of moral dignity, human decency and consideration in its most primitive form.

To our mind THERE IS NOTHING LOWER in the scale of human antics than to permit a helpless animal to suffer uncaressed for, and, more particularly, to be placed in the path of a danger (fast traffic on a busy highway) which would spell almost certain death.

The viciousness of the person or persons responsible for the long perpetrated outrage would be almost incredible had we not seen it personally!

CHILDREN NEED HELP

DEAR EDITOR:

Many of us have felt a pang of regret when we found ourselves unable to spare funds to help a worthy cause.

Yet there is one cause — the cause of needy children and their families — to which we can give real assistance without having to go any farther than our closets. Thousands of youngsters in our own United States and overseas are desperately in need of good, used clothing. Possessing little more than a few tattered garments, many boys and girls are unable even to attend school.

The Save the Children Federation, of which I have the honor to be a National Sponsor and a Board Member, is appealing for clean wearable clothing to help needy children and adults. Your readers can render a wonderful service by sending such clothing to:

Save the Children Federation, Dept. N

Ault Road and Rutledge Pike

Knoxville, Tennessee

The cool autumn and bitter winter months may seem a long way off. But in sending clothing now, your readers can be sure that coats, shoes, jackets and dresses will be available to provide warm protection for needy boys and girls when bad weather sets in.

FAITH BALDWIN

TRAFFIC SOLUTIONS

DEAR EDITOR:

The Commuters Association and The Sun are not alone in wanting to alleviate the commuter problem. So does State Senator George Miller Jr.

Senator Miller's opponent for the Republican nomination at the June primary appears to disagree with his vote on the Southern Crossing. It is obvious, however, that Senator Miller believed it is better to have this bridge, now than no bridge at all. He so voted, as did every other member of the Senate. Certainly the Southern Crossing will divert some traffic from the Bay Bridge.

Miller's opponent is attempting to make political hay on this issue. But he facts show Senator Miller's achievements in highway and bridge development for Contra Costa County are truly remarkable. Miller authored, or guided through the Senate, legislation which created: (1) the Orinda interchange, (2) the Pleasant Hill freeway, (3) the development of the Shepherd Canyon tunnel, (4) completion of missing link on Highway 21 and Route 69, (5) the Richmond-San Rafael Bridge, (6) elimination of a three-lane bottleneck and deathtrap on Highway 40, and (7) the new parallel bridge between Crockett and Valjejo.

GEORGE G. JONAS

Chester Smith To County Post

Chester G. Smith has been appointed deputy public works director, it was announced today by Victor W. Sauer, public works director.

Smith will assume the duties of George L. Berry, who is retiring June 30, after 37 years of county service.

Smith has been employed by the county since May, 1950, as a civil engineer. His latest assignment has been head of the Location Division, in charge of the engineering review of proposals for new subdivisions for the Public Works Department, and responsible for preliminary engineering on new roads.

He has served as deputy commissioner-surveyor and as the Public Works Department's representative on the County Planning Commission and the County Boundary Commission.

Youth Rally to Be Held at WC Rec Center

Rev. Jerry Jensen, Director of Oakland Youth for Christ will be the featured speaker at a Youth for Christ Rally for Contra Costa County, sponsored by the YFC Clubs in the area.

The Rally will be held at the Walnut Creek Recreation Center at 7:30 p.m. tonight.

Also featured on the program will be the Youth for Christ Choir plus instrumental entertainment. There will be a special quiz time, featuring the high school quiz team which represented the Bay Area at the regional finals in San Jose. They will be competing during a special teen time.

A cordial invitation is extended to everyone in Contra Costa County.

A poll in supervisor race

Which two candidates for supervisor from District 2 are going to be on top of the list come June 6? That's the question three dozen people have asked me this past week. Frankly, I don't have the slightest idea.

So — last Saturday morning I asked the people who perhaps know the most about the situation — the seven supervisory candidates. They came to The Sun office, so we could photograph them to publicize the big Candidates Night next Monday night at Acalanes High gym.

After they posed, a brainstorm struck home. Why not take a poll of the candidates? They agreed. We decided the question should be, "List who you think are the three strongest contenders, in their order of strength — but exclude yourself."

It was a secret vote. Even the pencils were the same and each folded his slip of paper in the same way.

Hear ye! Hear ye!

Now (trumpets) — here are the results as the candidates themselves see it:

Clarence Wallace was first with 11 points, closely followed by Ed Larmer with 10 points and Mel Nielsen with 8 points. Bill Zion tallied 5 points, Harold Mutnick, 4 points, Dave Comstock and Eunice Koller each with 2.

Three points were allotted for a first place on each list, two points for a second and one point for a third. Wallace, Larmer and Nielsen were named twice for no. 1 position. Instead of attempting to interpret this poll, let's look at the actual vote:

	1	2	3	1	2	3	Total
Wallace	3	1	3	2	1	3	11
Larmer	3	3	2	2	1	2	10
Nielsen	1	1	3	3			8
Zion	2		2			1	5
Mutnick				1	3		4
Koller					2		2
Comstock	2						2

Help yourself...

Can you see significant trends? Well, help yourself and have a good time. Several of the candidates said they have no idea how the election will turn out. It's a mighty tough one to figure.

Incidentally, campaigning must be a tiring, hectic business, for most of the candidates looked like they were slightly exhausted.

The Sun has been in a peculiar position in this race. (This is true with many of you, too.) The candidates are our friends. And it is a difficult task trying to walk exactly down the middle. We are amused — and sometimes angered — at some of the rumors we hear.

So far during the campaign, The Sun has been accused of backing this candidate or the other. I think our name has been linked with each of them at one time or another.

Our plan of battle

Our columns have been open to each. We have printed stories furnished by each. We published a mug shot of each candidate with his opening announcement — if furnished by the candidate. We have tried, within certain mechanical limitations, to rotate the position of the stories on the Battle Page. We have used the same kind of headline for all their releases since starting the Battle Page. The same set of pertinent questions were sent to each candidate. The first three questions with answers are printed in today's Sun.

But try as we may, The Sun (or any newspaper) will be criticized. That's the newspaper business. We have learned that people with a partisan view cannot be completely objective toward a medium of communication. This is not a criticism of them; it is merely a statement of fact. The important thing is The Sun tries to do an impartial job.

Because elections are very important, The Sun is devoting a substantial amount of space to its coverage and, in addition, is sponsoring the Candidates' Night. We hope you will read and study and vote.

D. Doyle's Flood Measures Cited

Allegations made by a candidate for the State Assembly that Assemblyman Donald D. Doyle was "partly responsible for the defeat of the flood control bond election held in April," today were labeled "simply the product of unfamiliarity with the situation," by King Parker Jr., Walnut Creek realtor and property manager.

"I feel certain that this claim was not intentionally made to mislead Contra Costa voters," Parker said. "It merely illustrates that the candidate lacks a grasp of Contra Costa's problems and what is being done to solve them."

"The statement shows an unawareness that through Donald Doyle's efforts nearly one million dollars in State aid is available to Contra Costa for purchase of flood control rights of way," Parker said.

"We may obtain this money as soon as we decide that we will underwrite our own share of the flood control effort. This money was included in the State budget at precisely the same time that the flood control issue campaign was under way."

Doyle Supported In Open Letter

A group of persons active in schools throughout Contra Costa County today joined in urging reelection of Donald Doyle as state assemblyman because of his "invaluable support to our local schools."

An open letter mailed to several thousand parents commended Doyle for his work at state level in assisting county schools to cope with their expansion problems.

"DAY BY DAY we see the invaluable aid Don Doyle is giving schools on behalf of our children, the letter stated.

"We feel it would be a tragic loss for Contra Costa County if his knowledge, interest and position as chairman of the Assembly Education Committee were sacrificed."

"Under Don Doyle's leadership, 10 education sub-committees are now embarked on a two-year program of research and public hearings to discover solutions for our school problems."

"Among other things, the committee is working toward more efficient school operation, better working conditions for teachers, faster construction of schools, and better textbooks for our children," the letter added.

"TO GIVE you an idea of how much is being done for education, Don Doyle's education committee last year studied and recommended 528 measures to help our schools."

Pedder Charges Incumbent With Bill Negligence

Jack Pedder, candidate for State Senator from Contra Costa County, told party workers last week that the incumbent senator failed to represent Contra Costa properly when he did not vote on many important bills.

Pedder listed the wire tapping bill, the Dilworth bill, book censorship and teachers' political rights as matters on which the incumbent senator had failed to record a vote.

"The incumbent also constantly obstructed the government's progressive state program. This is evidenced by the incumbent's opposition to the Weinberger water bill," said Pedder.

"The incumbent voted for the southern crossing which favors the interests of counties other than Contra Costa," Pedder said.

"Our incumbent senator would have served us better by joining with our two county assemblymen in their valiant effort to stave off and delay this bill. Contra Costa could best be served by a parallel bridge as a link in rapid transit to join East and West Contra Costa with Oakland and San Francisco," Pedder continued.

Eunice Koller Cites Problems Of Each Area

"Each area and community in each supervisorial district has problems which are important to that community alone," Eunice Koller of Crockett, candidate for supervisor in the Second District said this week.

"A supervisor must be available and willing to meet with the people of every area and community in an effort to solve these individual problems, with the over-all picture in mind of doing what is best for the district at large."

Regarding possibility of a charter form of government for the county, Mrs. Koller said:

"A thorough research into the possibilities of a charter form of government for Contra Costa County was conducted by the Contra Costa County Taxpayers Association in 1952. The association's printed report shows that a charter government might correct many of our failings."

"However, to investigate it and to prepare the different areas of the county to accept it might take more time than is generally realized."

"Meanwhile, our present form of government must be evaluated, strengthened and made the most of for the time being. Under our existing form, much can be done to expend the tax dollar more efficiently."

The Battle Page

Larmer Reception Pleases Hageman

Jack Hageman of Lafayette, chairman of the Larmer for Supervisor Club, today expressed himself as "very pleased" with the reception given the candidacy of Edward M. Larmer for Second District Supervisor.

"We have canvassed the entire district and find the citizens according to Larmer, his program and his experience a fine response," Hageman said.

"The interest in his candidacy is evident both in the central and southern portions of the district and in the waterfront areas of Crockett, Port Costa and Alhambra Valley."

Hageman said a personal survey showed him voters are particularly interested in Larmer's two terms of service as a grand juror and his successful participation in important county affairs.

"It is impressive when the judges of two counties, Contra Costa and Alameda, have shown their confidence in him by naming him to grand juries," Hageman declared.

The Larmer campaign head said precinct coverage has been made for the candidate and "we enter the last days of the campaign with confidence, for we have a candidate who meets every requirement of the district."

Comstock Writes About Freeway

David A. Comstock, candidate for supervisor in the second district of Contra Costa County, today made public the text of a letter written by him to Mr. B. W. Booker, assistant state highway engineer for the State of California, relative to the proposed Shepherd Canyon freeway.

"Dear Mr. Booker: I am writing to you with regard to the proposed Shepherd Canyon Freeway, particularly insofar as it concerns the routing from the tunnel to Moraga."

"I UNDERSTAND that three alternate routes have been suggested, with varying emphasis: (1) through the Redwood Canyon; (2) through the Indian Creek canyon; and (3) across the hills to a juncture with Moraga Highway at a point south of Miramonte high school."

"Inasmuch as the Redwood Canyon route would probably desecrate and at least partially destroy the rare and natural beauty of that canyon, I do not believe it should be considered seriously."

"Of the other two routes, I believe that only the Indian Creek location would serve the best interests of the Orinda-Moraga community, as well as those of more distant commuters."

"From an over-all planning viewpoint, the route beside the high school seems very poor, bisecting present and proposed residential development, introducing a traffic and noise hazard next to both the school and the homes."

"THE INDIAN Creek alternative did not exist, one might be justified in overlooking these objections as being less significant than the objections to the Canyon route, but since such an alternative does exist, and by your department's own admission is completely feasible, I should like strongly to urge the adoption of the Indian Creek route."

I hope that you will do everything in your power to insure that this route is given serious and careful consideration, and I am confident that such consideration will lead you to the same conclusion which I and other individuals and organizations have reached.

Sincerely yours,
DAVID A. COMSTOCK"

Koch Charges Milk Negligence

"Milk prices are being kept high deliberately," Russell Koch, Democratic candidate for the Assembly from the 10th District, stated recently.

"Because the consumer and the average family has no lobby in Sacramento, milk, a necessary food in every home costs several cents a quart more than is necessary."

"Most of the families in this district have growing children for whom milk is a vital necessity. Keeping the food budget within bounds is a constant battle as every parent knows. The present unfair law which keeps milk prices unreasonably high should be a matter of vital concern to your Assemblyman from this district. Up to now it hasn't been."

"If elected your Assemblyman," he said, "I will make it my business to fight for the consumer and average family's interest on this milk price problem and on the many other problems that are being ignored by the present incumbent."

The present Republican incumbent, Donald Doyle, who claims to be the "great benefactor of our District has chosen to ignore this and other problems apparently because the consumer and average family do not have powerful lobbies representing them in Sacramento," concluded Koch.

Koch spoke before a fund raising picnic of the Kensington Democratic Club in Tilden Park and the Danville Democratic Club in Martinez City Park on Sunday.

Hoey Will Head Miller Campaign

James F. Hoey, a Contra Costa resident for 71 years, life-long Republican and district attorney from 1930 through 1935, today accepted chairmanship of the Republican Voters' Committee of the 10th Assembly District for the re-election of State Senator George Miller Jr.

Hoey, a practicing lawyer and senior member of a prominent Martinez, Pittsburg and Brentwood law firm, is the former grand president of the Native Sons of the Golden West, and exalted ruler of the Elks.

HOEY HAD the distinction of being nominated to the post of District Attorney by every lawyer in Contra Costa County in 1930.

Hoey, a delegate to the Republican Convention of 1928, said, "During my lifetime I have watched legislators come and go, more than I care to remember. I can say, however, without fear of contradiction, that a legislator of the calibre of our Senator, George Miller Jr., is rare indeed."

"The brilliant record," Hoey added, "Miller compiled in 11 legislative sessions during a period of the State's most rapid growth, has earned for him the support of all those who place the interest of their county and state above party."

"IN MILLER we have a Senator who has secured passage of every bill of concern to our county. No Miller bill has ever been vetoed by Governor Warren or Governor Knight," Hoey stated.

"I am proud to accept the chairmanship of the Republican Committee for Miller and I am joined by my wife, Elizabeth, a former member of the State Welfare Board under Governor Earl Warren, in the campaign to re-elect George Miller Jr., in the primary June 5."

Bob Quinney Applauded

Congressional candidate Dr. H. R. "Bob" Quinney last night received warm plaudits from the State's highest ranking Democrat, Attorney General Edmund G. "Pat" Brown.

Brown was the principal speaker before 300 Democrats who packed a dinner at the Country Club in Vallejo given in support of Dr. Quinney, the labor-oriented Democrat for Congress from Contra Costa and Solano counties.

"I have known Bob Quinney for a long time and I am proud of his fact. My respect for him has grown with every meeting," Brown said.

"He has always represented the highest traditions of Democratic liberalism, both in his opinions and in his actions," the attorney general said.

'Role of Five City Councils' Told by Zion

"The only general representative in local government for the 40,000 people of the Second District is their supervisor. And only once every four years do they have the chance to elect the right man to this office," William R. Zion, county supervisorial candidate, stated this week.

"Five of the district's communities—Lafayette, Orinda, Crockett, Alamo and Danville—are large enough to be incorporated with their own city councils. As long as they remain unincorporated, this one supervisor must also fill the role of five city councils. Zoning and planning, roads, subdivision and drainage regulation, parks, business area improvements, and virtually all the other municipal-type problems and powers are in the hands of the supervisor. Whether he faces up to the problems, and whether he properly uses his power, is therefore of the utmost importance to every voter," Zion said.

"I have found that many of our newer residents, coming from areas with a different pattern of local government and without our vital problems of growth, do not fully appreciate this fact."

"As long as we have the present system, it must be the duty of the supervisor to know each area and its problems and needs. He must consult with the local residents affected on every issue that comes up. Failure to do so means that needs are neglected and public opinion is frustrated," the former research director for the County Taxpayers Association commented.

"Rather than waiting for residents to come to Martinez, I feel the supervisor must get around the district, to each of its neighborhoods and to the meetings of its many local civic groups. He must be regularly available in each community and at a centrally located office. Whenever possible, public hearings should be held in the area concerned, rather than in Martinez, and should take place in the evening."

Doyle Cited By Commuters On Transit Stand

George R. Cummings, president of the Contra Costa County Commuters Association, recently expressed the association's appreciation for Assemblyman Donald Doyle's opposition to the "southern crossing" bridge across San Francisco Bay, and for Doyle's legislation to permit the construction of rapid transit facilities within ten miles of the southern crossing approaches.

Cummings revealed that the commendation has been voted unanimously by the commuters' association board of directors.

Doyle, who has opposed the southern crossing because it would divert funds from rapid transit development for Contra Costa, is also one of three assemblymen who again voted against the measure this spring.

"The southern crossing is a financial fiasco and a physical monstrosity which would delay the rapid transit program Contra Costa commuters must have," Doyle said.

"In spite of the $50 million in freeways currently being constructed in Contra Costa, our highways will be hopelessly jammed within a few years, unless rapid transit is developed."

Wallace Opposes Hospital Site

C. R. Wallace, candidate for supervisor in the second district, on Tuesday wired the two California senators, Congressman Baldwin and the Veterans Administration in strong opposition to location of a Veterans Hospital in the Orinda-Moraga district.

"Aside from any consideration of bad planning," Wallace said, "my primary concern is whether this is the most favorable location for the veterans themselves. In my opinion it is not."

"Anyone acquainted with the problems and the needs of these men knows that two primary considerations to their convalescence is the availability of diversified public recreational facilities and a location convenient and accessible to their families and friends. The Moraga site obviously lacks both of these qualifications."

"As a veteran of 30 years in the Marine Corps, I believe I speak with some authority on this subject."

Nehemiah's monumental achievement in rebuilding the wall of Jerusalem in the face of false rumors, treachery, and other evil works will be featured in the Scriptural selections to be read in the Lesson-Sermon entitled: "Ancient and Modern Necromancy, Alias Mesmerism and Hypnotism, Denounced."

Procters Spend Mexico Vacation

Del Procter and his wife Julia, 1064 Sunnybrook Drive, Lafayette have returned home safe and sound from their fishing trip aboard the 40 foot cruiser "Davy Jones" owned by Raymond and Phoebe Force, Black Hawk Ranch, Danville.

The Procters flew down to Tia Juana then changed to the Mexican Air Lines plane direct to La Paz on the tip of Baja California where the Forces were waiting for them in their boat.

On their fishing trips which took them several hundred miles up and down the coast from La Paz they caught numerous marlin, tuna and other medium size fish. The blue water in some of the bays was so clear that it was easy to see 60 feet down, so all hands tried skin diving for lobsters and other smaller fish. Giant clams a foot in diameter were very plentiful on the beaches.

After two weeks of this peaceful and happy existence the Procters flew back home to rejoin their two children and dog in Lafayette.

Waters of Moon Playing in SF

The cast of "Waters of the Moon," N. C. Hunter's comedy currently at the Playhouse Repertory Theatre at Beach and Hyde Streets every Friday and Saturday at 8:30, displays a wide variety of characterizations, it was reported.

Joe Buckley plays a tweedy, pipe-smoking pensioner; Myna Brunton Hughes is a giddy Mrs. Ashworth who whiles the day with solitaire, Jane Steckle is a Mrs. Whyte who knits at all hours, and Robert Herrell is seen as an Austrian refugee dreaming of a sentimental Vienna.

Tree-Hole Pests Pose No Problem

Central Contra Costa residents were told today they need not be alarmed about the sudden appearance of tree-hole mosquitoes, a relatively harmless variety with a life span of about three weeks.

Ernest Campbell, manager of the 507 square-mile Contra Costa Mosquito Abatement District, said the advent of warm weather has produced the insects which breed in decayed holes or pockets of trees as a result of water which has collected from winter storms.

Tree hole mosquitoes should not be confused with the conventional type which breeds profusely throughout the summer and is a real pest when not controlled, Campbell said.

District personnel have been spraying since February against

Morrishes Back From Hunting 'Down Under'

A month of spectacular hunting and fishing in the little-known game paradises of Australia and New Zealand was enjoyed recently by Mr. and Mrs. Kendrick Morrish, 35 Rheem Boulevard, Orinda.

The Morrishes returned April 15 from the trip, which they made as guests of Qantas Airlines. Morrish, a vice-president of the American Trust Company, Oakland, does free-lance writing for outdoor magazines under the name of K. M. Bradford. He was commissioned by the airlines to make the trip with an eye toward publicizing the tourist possibilities "down under."

"And the tourist possibilities are tremendous," the Morrishes report enthusiastically. In New Zealand they hunted Red, Fallow, Sanbar and Japanese deer and wild boar, all imported game animals which have adapted well to the natural haven afforded by that island country. The Morrishes returned with handsome trophies of each species.

The fish in the streams and lakes "down under" are big and plentiful, the travelers report. Biggest catches were of rainbow and brown trout, averaging 3 to 7 pounds.

Acting as cameraman for the Morrishes was their son, Bill, a recently discharged Army lieutenant on terminal leave from Japan, who flew down to join his parents in New Zealand. Bill has returned to Japan, where he is teaching English at a Kyoto university while awaiting discharge of an Army buddy. The two ex-troopers then plan to take a trip around the world.

Interesting side trips made by the Morrishes were in Sydney and Melbourne, Australia, and in the Hawaiian and Fiji Islands.

Peter Sheaff Leads Med Group

Peter Sheaff, son of Orinda Superintendent of Schools Joseph L. Sheaff, was elected recently to the presidency of the Mendel honorary medical society at the University of Santa Clara.

The younger Sheaff, who celebrated his 21st birthday recently, is a junior at the university, majoring, of course, in pre-medical studies.

The Mendel Society which he now heads functions for the benefit of medical students. Its members gain knowledge and experience in their fields by preparing scientific papers, attending lectures by medical authorities and visiting clinics and hospitals for practical research.

Peter was graduated in 1953 from Acalanes High School where he played in the school band. He is continuing his musical interests at Santa Clara by playing trombone in a dance band.

Minister Visited By Old Friends

The Rev. Fred Morrow, former minister of Orinda Community Church, was greatly surprised and pleased when he looked down from the pulpit of the First Congregational Church of Oroville on a recent Sunday morning to see two rows of Orinda friends in the front pews.

Making the weekend trip to visit Mr. and Mrs. Morrow and their daughter Dorothy were Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Elkinton, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Carrol and their son Sheldon, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Dawson, Mrs. Hanna Teiche, Mrs. Idress Abbott, Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Flemming, Mrs. Carrie L. Brown and Mrs. Lauretta Atkin.

Drivers Sought By Red Cross; Tasks Listed

Men and women drivers are needed by the Mt. Diablo Chapter of the American Red Cross, according to Mrs. J. M. London, Motor Service chairman.

She listed the drivers in four categories: 1. Regular drivers for weekly trips to the hospitals. 2. Standby drivers for emergencies. 3. Drivers for evenings and week-ends to take entertainment groups to hospitals. 4. Men with spare time to take patients from Camp Parks to ball games.

The latter must be willing to take a short Red Cross escorting course, she added.

Requirements for drivers are that they are over 18 years of age with valid California drivers licenses. They must be able to drive with conventional type gear shift. They must be willing to take Red Cross first aid course unless they have had it already.

Drivers would drive station wagons owned by Mt. Diablo Chapter. Interested persons are asked to call Mrs. Arthur Hammonds, Volunteer Chairman for the chapter at YE 4-2226, or Mrs. London at MU 2-2569.

Volunteers of Month Named by Area Bureau

Named volunteers of the month by the Volunteer Bureau of the Walnut Creek area, are Mrs. Denis O'Connor, and Mrs. Louis Arnaud.

Mrs. O'Connor, a resident of Orinda, has given many hours working for the welfare of her community, bureau members said.

During the United Crusade campaign of last September, she was residential chairman for the northern Orinda area. Mrs. O'Connor organized this section, giving three months of her time.

More recently, Mrs. O'Connor lent her administrative abilities to the Red Cross campaign.

Acting in the capacity of Community Chairman, she secured volunteers to make collections in the Orinda area. In addition, Mrs. O'Connor is a member of the Oakland Junior League, and is active in many of the League's volunteer projects.

Mrs. Arnaud, of Walnut Creek, has also done an outstanding job as a volunteer, it was reported.

Formerly a director of nurses at Highland Hospital, Mrs. Arnaud now gives two hours a week to the Easter Seal Society for Crippled Children of Contra Costa County. She is a general office worker, acting as a receptionist and typist.

Mrs. Arnaud is also affiliated with the American Association of University Women, and the Contra Costa Medical Association Auxiliary.

Rheem Horse Show Draws 90 Entrants, Fine Foods

The Rheem Center Junior Horse Show and Rodeo, an all day event last Saturday, drew nearly 90 contestants, despite the fact that the day was overcast and cold.

The show, sponsored by the Rheem Center Merchants' Association, was spearheaded by Frank Kerrigan, T&D Liquors, president of the association, and promises to become an annual event.

At 10:15 a.m., the entrants, horses and riders, lined up for the parade and grand entry. Leading the long line were the two flag bearers, Frank Kerrigan, holding the American Flag, on Sweetheart, and Caroline Thune on Cindy with the California Flag.

The parade circled the arena and the Rheem Center, then came back into the exhibition area. Directly behind the bearers came Loretta Costa, daughter of Stanley Costa, owner of Skyline Ranch, who is a professional Trick and Fancy Roper. She was demonstrating a number of intricate twirls, standing atop a trained pinto pony.

Judging the seventeen classes was Duane Lockhart, with Gene Lockhart as Ringmaster. Assistant Ringmasters: John Sanders, Frank Sanders, Sam Carr, Al Baix, Carl Tiedemann, and Art Fleuti. Announcers were Paul Foster and Art Fleuti, while the time-keeper was Carl Tiedemann.

Ribbons were presented to the first six winners in each class, plus prizes to the first four. Contributing merchants were: Rheem Center, Moraga, 61 prizes; Olson Nolte, San Francisco, one trophy and 102 colored ribbons; Levi Strauss, San Francisco, 3 jean orders; Western Horseman Magazine, 3 magazine subscriptions; Vinson Western Wear, Walnut Creek, 2 merchandise orders.

Stand Against South Crossing Gets Praise

Commendation for Assemblyman Donald D. Doyle's continued battle for Contra Costa commuters was made today by the Contra Costa County Commuters Association.

George R. Cummings, association president, expressed the Association's appreciation for Doyle's opposition to the "southern crossing" bridge across San Francisco Bay, and for Doyle's legislation to permit the construction of rapid transit facilities within 10 miles of the southern crossing approaches.

Cummings revealed that the commendation had been voted unanimously by the commuters association board of directors.

Doyle, who has constantly opposed the southern crossing because it would divert funds from rapid transit development for Contra Costa, is also one of three assemblymen who again voted against the measure this spring.

The southern crossing is a financial fiasco and a physical monstrosity which would delay the rapid transit program Contra Costa commuters must have," Doyle said. "In spite of the $50 million in freeways currently being constructed in Contra Costa, our highways will be hopelessly jammed within a few years, unless rapid transit is developed."

The original southern crossing measure would have precluded the construction of rapid transit crossings at sites which would have served Contra Costa. Doyle authored and later sponsored legislation which saved rapid transit for the County.

Graves Lauds Adlai Stevenson

Richard P. Graves, 1954 candidate for Governor of California, today urged Democrats to vote for Adlai Stevenson at the June 5 Primary "as the candidate best qualified to restore America's prestige."

"The greatest danger to the Nation lies in the rapid deterioration of our position as the leader of the free world," Graves said in a statement.

"Stevenson is the man most likely to restore our position of world leadership and revitalize our foreign policy," he added.

Graves praised Stevenson's program and views on domestic and foreign issues, and denounced what he termed the Eisenhower Administration's "single interest policy" for business.

"Stevenson will mobilize our maximum strength to deal with foreign and domestic problems by providing opportunity for the broadest possible base of participation," Graves said.

Dambacher to Head Education Association

Arthur D. Dambacher, director of adult education in the Acalanes Union High School District, will head the Contra Costa County Adult Education Administrators' Association, succeeding Joseph Muirhead, principal of Pittsburg Evening High School.

Charles Chapman, coordinator of classes for part-time students at East Contra Costa Junior College, was elected 1956-57 vice president, and Charles Ferrell of the county superintendent's staff was reelected secretary-treasurer at the recent meeting, held at the Dambacher home in Walnut Creek.

Dambacher announced that the association will observe the centenary of adult education in California this fall by compiling a history of adult education in Contra Costa County. He said the association's first fall meeting will be held October 16 at a time and place to be announced later.
